Beyond the Classroom

All teachers at Wellington are expected to contribute fully to the extra-curricular and pastoral life of the College. It is the norm for teachers to coach sport at the appropriate level and to help deliver service or CCF activities on Wednesday afternoons. As tutors, teachers are allocated to a boarding or day house and are responsible for monitoring and enhancing the academic and pastoral welfare of a group of pupils within that house. This involves meeting the pupils regularly both individually and as a group, liaising between teachers and parents, taking supervision duties in the house and being involved generally in the house community.

The College expects its teachers to contribute whole-heartedly to other aspects of school life by drawing upon their own interests and enthusiasms. The richness of the school depends upon teachers who, for example, coach games, direct plays, support and organise society meetings and take pupils on trips to concerts/theatre locally and in London.

A full seven-day-a-week boarding school such as Wellington must obviously look after and cater for the pupils entrusted to it at weekends. Staff should be aware that Wellington teaches on Saturday mornings and expects teachers to participate enthusiastically in the activities that are offered to pupils during weekends including: sport, social events, chapel services, musical rehearsals and many other things.
