The Cherwell
School

Opportunity,
Responsibility, Excellence

The Cherwell School is a successful comprehensive school in Oxford, rated 'Outstanding' by Ofsted. We are recruiting for a permanent Higher Level Teaching Assistant; this role will involve leading a reading recovery scheme with small groups of KS3 students. It is an exciting opportunity for someone who is keen to make a real and immediate difference to the educational chances of young people in school. The successful candidate will have experience of working with children in a learning environment and will have a good understanding of child development and learning processes. They will also be able to interact well with both children and adults, work on their own initiative and have a very good standard of literacy/numeracy. They will be passionate about the value and benefits of reading, and be driven by a strong moral purpose to help students become fluent and confident readers.
