

Candidate brief for the position of

Head of EAL (English as an Additional Language)

to start January 2020

D'OVERBROECK'S
OXFORD

The school

d'Overbroeck's is a co-educational independent day and boarding school in Oxford for students aged 11 – 18. The school roll currently stands at c 600, and this is set to grow in the coming years.

The school was founded in 1977. Initially only a sixth form, d'Overbroeck's successfully pursued a policy of extending its age range, becoming an all-through 11 – 18 school in 2005.

In a city and a county which boast a good number of independent schools with resounding names and long histories, d'Overbroeck's has, in a comparatively short time, established itself as a thriving, forward-looking and highly successful school with a robustly distinctive ethos, an outstanding staff team, and a strong reputation for the quality of its educational and pastoral provision.

The school is currently in a phase of rapid growth and expansion.

In September 2017 all sixth form teaching moved to its new site at 333 Banbury Road and the d'Overbroeck's International School moved into the Swan Building, which was previously used for sixth form teaching.

Taken together, these changes have brought substantially more physical space and enable the school to take its facilities and its educational provision to a whole new level in a host of areas including the sciences, art, music and drama, as well as its library, social and dining provision. This is, therefore, an opportunity to join the school at an enormously exciting point in its development.

Our ethos

Academic achievement and personal growth are at the heart of what we aim to achieve at d'Overbroeck's; and the school's success in achieving these goals is evident in students' achievements and in the enthusiastic endorsement we receive from current and former parents and students.

The dominant note at d'Overbroeck's is one of purposeful informality. The ethos is firmly built on personal relationships, on a relative lack of stuffiness and overly-formal hierarchies and on a strong conviction that the individual lies at the heart of the school.

The school believes in leading by example, in a healthy dose of flexibility and in the power of laughter and humanity. 'Enthusiasm', 'maturity' and 'courtesy' are words that very frequently feature in the observations of visitors to the school. This is an environment which gives people – staff as much as students – the space to grow, to learn, to engage with complexity and to achieve their goals, while also making time for friendship, for laughter and for living life to the full.

The policy at d'Overbroeck's is for everyone, staff and students, to be on first-name terms throughout the school. The school's experience is that this fosters more mutual respect and truer, more motivating interactions between staff and students.

Students wear school uniform up to Year 11 (there is no uniform in the Sixth Form). This is a relatively light-touch uniform, designed to allow each student a sense of her or his own individual personality.

d'Overbroeck's does not have any particular religious affiliation and welcomes students and staff of all faiths and none.

'A defining characteristic of d'Overbroeck's is its close-knit, informal atmosphere within which students grow in confidence, self-esteem, respect for themselves and for others. Students are very supportive of each other and behaviour throughout is excellent, exemplified in considerate, warm relationships.'

ISI inspection report, October 2013

Structure of the school

The school consists of three sections on different sites in North Oxford: Years 7-11, the Sixth Form and the International School. Due in part to its history and in part to the physical configuration of its buildings, d'Overbroeck's is a mushroom-shaped school. The Sixth Form is numerically the largest part of the school: in addition to students progressing from the lower years into the Sixth Form, we draw a large intake of students (around 130 or so at present) directly into the Lower Sixth each year – a combination of local and international students.

As the present time, the composition of the school is as follows:

Years 7-11 – 196 students; all day students. Based at Leckford Road, OX2 6HX.

The Sixth Form – 330 students; a mixture of day and boarding. Based at a new purpose-built site at 333 Banbury Road that opened in September 2017.

The International School – around 70 international students who are all boarders. The move into the Swan Building in September 2017 has provided considerably more space and greatly improved facilities, including laboratories and an art room. We fully expect the student numbers in the International School to increase in the coming years.

333 Banbury Road

From September 2017, when the new site at 333 Banbury Road was completed, the Sixth Form benefitted from a considerable upgrade in facilities and physical space. The new building includes five science laboratories and spacious suites for art, music and drama, as well as more library and common room space.

The new Hall provides daily dining facilities for staff and students as well as a 180-seater auditorium for music, drama performances and all kinds of other school events, not only for the Sixth Form but for the whole school.

Teaching and learning d'Overbroeck's offers a broad academic curriculum with a wide choice of subjects at GCSE and A level. Students in the International School are prepared for IGCSE examinations.

The school places an emphasis on fostering resilience and independent learning skills, and this starts as early as Year 7. In the Sixth Form, many students complete an EPQ alongside their A level programme, and students regularly take part in Maths and Science Olympiads. Special programmes are provided for Oxbridge and medical / veterinary applicants. A wide range of trips and visiting speakers enriches the taught curriculum.

A Personal Development (PSHE) programme is integrated into the curriculum from Year 7 through to Year 11 and students in the Lower Sixth have an Enrichment Programme which introduces them to information, views and debates on a wide range of issues. There is a focus on reflective teaching and on CPD and the school has repeatedly been complimented by ISTip on its work in supporting NQTs through their induction year.

The teaching approach at d'Overbroeck's has always been built around comparatively small classes. Classes are generally kept to a maximum of 15 students up to Year 11 and up to 10 students in the Sixth Form.

Classes in the International School are usually kept to a maximum of 10.

In the International Section, most students follow a one-year programme which prepares them for IGCSE exams in up to 8 subjects alongside intensive teaching in English for academic purposes (EAP). The School also offers a two-year IGCSE programme for younger students, which runs alongside the current one-year programme.

Exam results are very strong. At A level, both raw results and value-added data show impressive achievement across the ability range, and progression to Oxbridge and other top Russell Group universities is consistently strong.

There are currently around 180 residential boarders at d'Overbroeck's, and this number is set to increase in the next few years as the school grows. We take day pupils only in Years 7-11 so our boarders are either in the Sixth Form (where around half the students are boarders) or in the International Section (where almost all the students board).

For some of our boarders home is just 30 or 40 miles away; for others it is another part of the world. Some will have boarded before while for others this may be the first experience of being away from home and family.

Whichever it is, our aim is to create a close-knit, homely boarding environment where students are physically comfortable and personally at ease; where they can live and work happily, enjoy freshly-cooked, well-balanced meals and make strong and lasting friendships. Like our teaching space, our boarding provision has seen considerable development.

A brand new sixth form boarding house, known as Islip House, opened in September 2017. We have two further boarding houses in the North Oxford area for Sixth Form. The majority of Upper Sixth opt for accommodation with a host family for their final year.

Our International School has also increased its boarding accommodation in Central Oxford and also in a relaxing tranquil campus on the outskirts of Oxford.

Extra-curricular

Alongside the academic curriculum, a varied and vibrant programme of co-curricular activities opens up all sorts of opportunities for students throughout the age range. Sport is varied and wide-ranging, music and drama are very strong and concerts and school productions are always big events to look forward to.

Though it does not have its own playing fields or sporting facilities, the school is fortunate to have the use of an excellent range of venues and facilities nearby, including those of Oxford University at Iffley Road, and these are used on a daily basis.

'It's hard to imagine a better school for nurturing and developing students.... Without exception all staff are dedicated to the aspirations of the school, resulting in a lovely and thriving atmosphere that produces excellent results and well-rounded teenagers!'

Association membership

d'Overbroeck's is a member of the Independent Schools Council (ISC), the Society of Heads of independent schools and of the Boarding Schools Association. The school is also an associate member of AGBIS.

Accreditation and inspection d'Overbroeck's is an accredited member of the Independent Schools Council.

The most recent ISI inspection took place in October 2017. This was a regulatory compliance inspection, which found the School to be fully compliant. Prior to that, the most recent full integrated ISI inspection was in October 2013, and the school was judged 'Excellent' in all aspects of its educational and boarding provision. Notably, the inspection team also noted the 'extremely high levels of satisfaction with the school overall' expressed in the parental responses in the pre-inspection survey. Informally, the school was told that these were exceptionally high, even by the high standards of most independent schools.

In addition, the school's International School is regularly inspected by the British Council. The most recent inspection took place in September 2015, and this too resulted in a highly complimentary report which was fulsome in its recognition of the school's strengths. Copies of both the ISI and the British Council reports can be found at:

Head of EAL (English as an Additional Language)

We are seeking to appoint a Head of English as an Additional Language (EAL). Reporting to the Head of the International School, the Head of EAL will lead a large department and have primary responsibility for the delivery and quality of teaching and learning in EAL throughout the school.

The Department and Context

The EAL department at d'Overbroeck's is a large, thriving and expanding department, which plays a crucial role in the curriculum of the International School and also for international students in the Sixth Form. The International School recruits students in years 10 and 11, as well as, new for September 2019, a year 9 intake. In all three years EAL is a core element of the curriculum and in year 11 students will take IGCSE exams in English as a Second (and sometimes First) Language. The International School is in a phase of rapid expansion, growing to around 100 students from September 2019 and the EAL department is growing correspondingly.

The EAL department also delivers a curriculum of English language support to international students studying A Levels in the Sixth Form - typically about 80 a year of whom take the course. The course is designed to have two main purposes. One is to support and enhance the academic English of these students in ways that are specifically related to their A Level studies. The second is to prepare them for exams that provide a qualification acceptable to universities. In most cases these are the Trinity Integrated Skills exams, but where appropriate we also prepare students for IELTS.

Each year one or two students in Years 7-11 may also receive some EAL teaching.

There will be up to nine members of staff (full and part-time) teaching in the department from September and there are about 200 students on the EAL register across the school as a whole.

Departmental Responsibilities

The Head of EAL will have a wide range of responsibilities and duties. The following bullet points are not meant to be exhaustive but indicative.

- Having primary responsibility for the quality of teaching and learning in EAL throughout the school.
 - In the International School (TIS) the Head of EAL will work closely with the Head of TIS and will lead the organisation and delivery of EAL lessons across the school. He/she will also be a senior member of the teaching staff, working with teachers across the curriculum to ensure teachers are equipped and trained in teaching students for whom English is not their first language.
 - In the Sixth Form, he/she will liaise with Heads of Department and subject leaders to ensure the EAL department is providing the right support to improve the performance of students in their A Level subjects.
- Overseeing and supporting the teaching of the EAL department and supervising the day-to-day work of other members of the department, including
 - organising and leading departmental meetings
 - assisting the Senior Vice Principal with staffing arrangements and assigning students to classes
 - taking a leading role in the induction and training of new members of staff
 - running work scrutiny and standardisation sessions for marking to ensure all teachers are working to guidelines.

- Devising and resourcing the teaching programmes of the department across the whole school. This involves designing and updating all schemes of work and ensuring excellent teaching resources are developed, acquired and deployed at all levels.
- Marking tests to assess the levels of English of new and prospective students.
- Choosing the appropriate public examinations for students to be entered for and submitting exam entries to the School's exams office.
- Conducting oral examinations and standardising course work as required.
- Conducting Professional Development Reviews for members of your department.
- Preparing and submitting the Departmental Development Plan and Budget for your department and preparing/completing all departmental paperwork including schemes of work and reviews of examination results.
- The Head of EAL is expected to be an excellent classroom practitioner her/himself and will teach EAL, but with a reduced teaching timetable, to ensure that she/he has time to fulfil her/his duties as Head of Department.

Extra-curricular involvement

All members of staff are expected to support and be involved in the International School's programme of extra-curricular activities. The Head of EAL will be expected to:

- Participate in and run weekly activities (some of which take place in late afternoons/early evenings) and contribute to the running of weekend activities and trips, once or twice a term.
- Participate in other major annual events such as the Welcome Party and the International Arts Event.

Person specification and qualifications

All applicants will be expected to have a good honours degree and appropriate qualifications (minimum DELTA) and experience in teaching English as an Additional Language.

The successful candidate will be a highly qualified and experienced teacher of EAL and will have worked in a context where EAL is taught as part of a wider academic curriculum. As such, applicants with experience in the preparation and delivery of CLIL based courses will be at an advantage. They will be passionate about the education of students with English as an additional language and be prepared to go the extra mile to ensure outstanding progress and outcomes for our students. We embrace a flexible approach to teaching. A sense of fun, a readiness to respond to students' individual needs and an open approach to teaching are qualities that we prize highly, along with a genuine commitment to working in an exceptional school environment.

d'Overbroeck's offers teachers and students alike a friendly and welcoming environment where classes are small and standards and expectations are high.
