Applications for the post of Teacher of History are invited from committed, creative and inspiring classroom practitioners. This is an exciting opportunity for an outstanding, experienced teacher looking to develop their career journey, in a forward-thinking school that values the professional development and well-being of its staff.

Penwortham Priory Academy is a vibrant and ambitious school with a culture of high expectations. We are now looking for a dynamic Lead Teacher of History with a forward-thinking attitude to join this core faculty. The post would require an outstanding practitioner to consistently deliver excellent lessons coupled with the task of enthusing and engaging students to achieve their full potential within the Humanities Faculty. It is envisaged that the successful candidate will support the History department moving forward in preparing students for the demands of the curriculum and be prepared to lead and be accountable for student outcomes at Key Stage 3 and 4.

Penwortham Priory Academy has a relentless focus upon providing outstanding learning experiences and raising achievement and as such...

The ideal candidate will:

- Be a committed teacher, who is positive and willing to evolve
- Exude a passion for the subject, which is evident in their day to day practice in the classroom and beyond

- Inspire, motivate and support the individual needs and progress of all students
- Be prepared for the demands of and changes to the curriculum and be prepared to lead and be accountable for student outcomes at Key Stage 3 and 4
- Be a lifelong learner and a reflective practitioner
- Work collaboratively with other staff, both within Priory and across other secondary and primary schools, as an active member of our Preston's Teaching School's Alliance and our 'Family of Schools'
- Contribute to the extracurricular life of the school
- Be committed to Penwortham Priory Academy's ethos of high expectations and challenge

We will offer you:

- An exciting opportunity in a friendly, supportive, forward thinking school
- Support and guidance from the Head of Faculty and Lead History Teacher in ensuring both student progress and professional career progress
- The prospect of progression within the school and move onto further whole school roles of responsibility (see 'Shop of Support' pack)
- The opportunity to be part of our highly successful SLT internship programme
- Professional development to support your personal ambitions within teaching
- The opportunity to teach in a school where staff and student relationships are excellent and where pupils feel safe and well supported
- A school where leaders ensure that pupils are safe, healthy and happy and where pupils behave well.

For further information regarding the role of Lead Teacher of History at Penwortham Priory Academy, it is advised that all applicants download the additional literature offered.

Prospective candidates are encouraged to contact the school for a tour prior to the final application.

Completed application forms should be submitted preferably via TES, or to Mrs J Cookson, j.cookson@priory.lancs.sch.uk by 12 noon, Tuesday, 19th March 2019.
