INFORMATION ABOUT COBHAM HALL

Cobham Hall is housed in a beautiful Grade 1 listed Tudor mansion built in 1584 and was at one stage home to the Ashes of cricketing folklore. The School is otherwise set in 150 acres of tranquil 18th Century park landscape in the pretty village of Cobham in Kent.

The School is within half an hour of central London via the High Speed train service from Ebbsfleet International to London St Pancras and within an hour of the Channel ports of Dover and Folkestone by car.

Cobham Hall was founded in 1962 and is a single sex Boarding and Day school for girls aged 11 to 18. It is a member of the Round Square network of schools and indeed when it became a member back in 1971 was, at the time, the first all-girls' school to join the network.

The Round Square IDEALS are central to the School's ethos, helping each student to realise that "there is more in you than you think": the School's moto. There is a high commitment to the personal wellbeing of each student and Cobham Hall is recognised as a leading innovator in this area.

Our small class sizes ensure that each student is supported on their educational journey and enables lessons to be dynamic and engaging.

Our Headmistress, Mrs Wendy Barrett, took up this role in 2020 having previously held the post of Deputy Headmistress. Under her guidance, the School has developed an ambitious strategy to drive up standards and ensure that our students leave with the academic and character skills necessary to adapt to, and thrive in, an ever changing World.

In March 2021, Cobham Hall merged with the Mill Hill School Foundation, a merger that has opened up new opportunities for investment and collaboration. The School is currently consulting parents on the introduction of boys into the Sixth Form.

Full details of Cobham Hall's most recent inspections are available on our website at www.cobhamhall.com. In summary, a full integrated ISI inspection in 2015 found the majority of areas looked at to be excellent, with the remainder all found to be good, whilst in 2019 the School received an incredibly positive report from CRESTeD.

For further details about Cobham Hall please refer to the School's website. The School is an equal opportunities employer. We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful applicants are subject to a DBS check.
