Results in public examinations are consistently excellent, with almost all of the girls going on to university, several each year to Oxbridge, to read a wide variety of subjects. As well as innovative teaching, learning and scholarship, St Mary's offers outstanding pastoral care and a vibrant, warm community.

We are looking for an experienced, enthusiastic and inspirational graduate, with outstanding inter-personal skills, to join us as a part-time, peripatetic Learning Support and English specialist.

St Mary's is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of pupils. Due to the nature of the work involved, the successful applicant will be required to undertake an Enhanced DBS check.

THE SCHOOL: ITS ETHOS AND AIMS

St Mary's Calne believes in excellence in all respects. As a school community, we thrive amidst a culture of strong expectations and the education which we provide nurtures and develops the concept of high performance. The principal aim is to develop well-rounded pupils who are equipped to excel as adults.

Whilst the achievement of top quality examination results is a central tenet, since these will be a key passport for the girls in the path to their future careers in the modern world, we seek to encourage everyone (girls and colleagues) to strive for excellence in a wide range of spheres. We aim to inculcate habits for life, enabling the girls to relish the prospect of hard work; to develop and deploy the necessary qualities of perseverance and determination; to learn how to do well; to acquire the belief and self-confidence that they are capable of high performance and success – both in the short term and in the future; to instil a sense of desire and an appreciation that the future, indeed their future, lies within the grasp of their own efforts.

Co-curricular opportunities beyond the classroom are a vital and integral part of life for girls at St Mary's Calne. They are woven into the timetable during the day, in the evenings and at weekends. We believe that both boarders and day girls benefit from all aspects of the strong boarding ethos of the school.

EXPECTATIONS OF ACADEMIC TEACHING STAFF

Most importantly, we are looking for an enthusiastic, energetic and well-qualified teacher who will inspire their pupils and who can engage sympathetically with young people. They will: make an active contribution to the department; stretch pupils of all abilities to achieve their potential; encourage pupils to learn by making the subject taught both interesting and accessible; be innovative and dynamic in order to ensure the effective delivery of the curriculum. Our pupils' success in acquiring new abilities, skills and understanding depends crucially upon the quality of teaching which we are able to offer.

St Mary's School has an innovative approach, incorporating Connected Teaching and Learning. This is based around four pillars.

Connected across subjects: developing interdisciplinary thinkers with the ability to transfer skills and knowledge.

Connected digitally: using IT to enhance learning.

Connected with teachers: to foster a love of learning.

Connected with the wider community: collaborating with universities, other institutions and professionals to create opportunities for real world learning.

These four pillars are connected to our broader academic philosophy of 'Academic Buoyancy', the capacity to overcome setbacks, challenges, and difficulties that are part of everyday academic life. By fostering academic buoyancy pupils will leave St Mary's with five key strengths that will prepare them for the academic and wider challenges beyond school: Confidence, Coordination, Control, Composure, Commitment.

All members of staff are expected to commit to the boarding ethos of the school which includes supporting the extra-curricular life, as well as taking on the role of a House tutor within a boarding House on one evening a week. This provides a key interface between the specific academic work of the classroom and the broader life of the boarding community.

In particular at St Mary's, we pride ourselves on our focus on the needs of individual girls. This is underpinned by the tutorial system in which all members of the academic staff play a full part, looking after a number of Tutees in different year groups; these tend to be drawn from the particular House in which each member of staff tutors.

TEACHING STAFF

ROUTINE DUTIES AND COMMITMENTS

St Mary's School holds all teaching staff to the highest standards in accordance with DfE guidance on teacher standards:

'Teachers make the education of their pupils their first concern, and are accountable for achieving the highest possible standards in work and conduct. Teachers act with honesty and integrity; have strong subject knowledge, keep their knowledge and skills as teachers up to date and are self-critical; forge positive professional relationships; and work with parents in the best interests of their pupils.'

In addition, a member of the Learning Support team can expect:

- to check email at several points during the day
- to set and mark work in accordance with Departmental guidance
- to prepare girls for public examinations as appropriate
- to write reports in accordance with the guidance issued by the Deputy Head Academic.

Salary will be paid at the appropriate point on the St Mary's Pay Scale. For all new members of staff, the first six months of employment is a trial period for both parties. The normal one term's notice to terminate the contract is not applicable until after that period.

All members of staff are expected to have proper regard for the school's safeguarding policy and procedures, including update training.

The above applies to part-time teaching staff on a pro-rata basis.

THE LEARNING SUPPORT DEPARTMENT

The Learning Support Department at St Mary's Calne is staffed by one full time teacher and around 4 peripatetic teachers. The department works with girls on an individual basis for lessons that last for 30 minutes. There is one specialist teacher of girls for whom English is their second language and two teachers who specialise in supporting girls with a range of mild learning difficulties such as dyslexia, processing issues etc. In addition, there are up to two teachers who work with Maths Department to support girls who are struggling with Maths. The Department is situated near the School Library and works closely as a team. Teachers are paid for the lessons that they teach and there are periods during the school year, such as examinations week, when no lessons are taught.

As girls are not taken out of lessons for additional help, they tend to have their support lessons at lunchtimes or during study periods. This can mean that the lessons for teaching staff are spread across the week and flexibility is key as sometimes lessons need to be moved or teaching at lunchtimes only is a necessity to cover the demand. Staff are expected to work closely with all departments that are relevant to the individual girl. For Learning Support specialists this means all departments whilst for Extra Maths, this means working closely with the relevant maths teacher to ensure they are covering the work being taught in their normal lessons. Teachers are expected to write reports twice a year and be available to parents via phone or email, if required. In addition, they should liaise with Boarding Houses if girls have missed a lesson as well as document any concerns or absences.
