

Sunningdale School

Person Specification

Introduction

Sunningdale is a very happy school where every member of the community is equally valued and where everybody supports each other to ensure that we maintain a productive, pleasant and fun working and learning environment. It is essential, therefore, when a new member of staff joins the school, that they understand and embrace this ethos.

Members of staff at Sunningdale should:

- Carry out all their roles and responsibilities to the best of their ability at all times
- Uphold and promote the traditions and ethos of the School
- Support other members of staff where and when necessary
- Take pride in their own personal appearance and ensure the pupils do the same
- Be adaptable and ready to help
- Have a positive approach to their job
- Be able to work as part of a close knit team
- Be able to communicate well
- Show initiative and be prepared to be flexible
- Be prepared to be involved in different aspects of school life
- Have a good sense of fun
- SMILE!