Swanshurst is a large, outstanding school for girls aged 11-19 years. We offer excellent support and CPD for staff at all stages of their career.

We want someone who can inspire a passion for learning languages and bring out the best in our pupils' by delivering a strong curriculum through effective teaching. We are looking for a teacher who capture and share their own enthusiasm for languages with our hard working, well behaved and aspirational pupils.

We would expect the successful candidate to teach Spanish at Key Stage 3, Key Stage 4 and Key Stage 5. A second language of French would be preferable but not essential.

Ofsted (2017) found pupils at Swanshurst to be "happy, well cared for and that they secure excellent academic and personal outcomes" they described the girls as "polite, respectful and courteous". Needless to say, we are incredibly proud of them and of all our staff who contribute to the "purposeful learning culture within the school that characterises the work of staff and pupils" This post is covered by Part 7 of the Immigration Act (2016) and therefore the ability to speak fluent spoken English is an essential requirement for this role.
