Head of Music

St Aubyn's School Seeks to appoint a talented and inspirational professional to lead it's vibrant and successful Music Department from January 2020.

The department runs a busy co-curricular programme as well as staging numerous concerts and productions.

A contribution to the wider School life, both pastoral and co-curricular activities is expected.

The successful candidate will be:

- ♦ Highly motivated, enthusiastic and bring their own unique skills to the department.
- ♦ Experienced in teaching Music across the key stages and managing a team of peripatetic music teachers.
- ♦ The School is expecting the Head of Music to be adept at playing several instruments and promoting the Music subject.

The School welcomes applications from experienced Heads of Music and committed and talented Music Teachers who feel a Head of Music role is their next career move.
