

Teacher of IB Economics: (with potential Head of Department responsibility for the right candidate)

Start date: September 2021

Campion School, Athens, Greece

Date posted: 24 March 2021

Contract type: Full Time

Salary: Undisclosed

Contract term: Fixed Term

Founded in 1970, Campion's purpose is to provide a first-class education for boys and girls aged between three and eighteen, fostering abilities both in the field of academic and general education, and in sporting activities and the performing arts. Our IB results are consistently 5 points above world average with nearly all our pupils progressing to university education. Our most recent ISI inspection judged Campion to be excellent in every category.

Due to staff retirement and increased numbers and we are seeking to appoint at least one experienced teacher.

The successful applicant will teach Economics as part of the IB diploma and a strong academic background is therefore essential. The successful candidate(s) will have experience teaching Economics within a British school environment. They will have either IB Diploma or A-level experience and will be a strong team-player. A commitment to using e-Learning resources is expected. Campion is committed to the continual professional development of its staff and full IB training is available.

What we are looking for:

- Highly skilled educators with the ability to engage and stretch high performing students
- A track record of excellent teaching
- A recognised teaching qualification
- The ability to motivate and inspire students
- Creative teaching skills and a professional approach
- The determination to raise students' achievement
- The encouragement of extra-curricular activities
- Knowledge of, and willingness to teach, TOK an advantage

Please apply by email, including a current CV, contact details of two professional referees and a letter of application, to the Headmaster, Duncan Rose, headmaster@campion.edu.gr. Applications should be submitted no later than Wednesday 12th April 2021. Interviews will happen shortly afterwards. However, we reserve the right to invite candidates for interview prior to the closing date and to close vacancies early if we have sufficient suitable candidates. Therefore, we encourage interested applicants to submit an application as soon as possible.

Further information regarding the school can be obtained from the school's website, www.campion.edu.gr

Important notes:

Greek Applicants - You must hold a relevant degree and have completed the registry for teachers of private schools (Epetirida), or hold the qualifications to do so. Please note that international qualifications are not recognised as qualified teacher status for Greek candidates within Greece.

International Applicants - Your qualifications must be from the same country as your passport. You must also hold a relevant teaching qualification (QTS with completed NQT or equivalent) again from the country of your passport. Please note that the iPGCE is not currently recognised in Greece. For British applicants we are able to support NQT training.

Campion School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service in the UK.