Welcome from the CEO

Archway Learning Trust is a vibrant learning community where students are cared for, receive a high quality education and experience every opportunity to be successful.

School years are amongst the most important in our lives, helping us to develop the knowledge, skills and characteristics we need to succeed. At Archway Learning Trust, we are committed to giving every child the very best start that we can. We offer outstanding teaching and learning and exceptional personal support in an inclusive, faith based environment. I became a teacher because I believe in equal opportunities for everyone.

I also believe that every child has the right to an excellent education. Learning is at the heart of any good society and the opportunity to learn from teachers who are committed, enthusiastic and innovative is a right that all children should have.

Our mission is to help children to understand and believe in themselves, respect and care for others and to develop a wide understanding of faith, the world around them and their place within it. The determination of our youngsters to succeed, and the passion of our teachers to make a difference, makes me proud to be Chief Executive Officer of this diverse and dynamic family of Trust's.

About the Trust

Archway Learning Trust, previously Bluecoat Academies Trust was formed in April 2014 as a result of the very long and successful history of Bluecoat Academy. We recently welcomed three further secondary schools in Derby to the Trust and opened Bluecoat Trent Academy, a secondary Free School in Nottingham in September 2021.

The Trust comprises of Bluecoat Aspley Academy, Bluecoat Sixth Form, Bluecoat Wollaton Academy, Bluecoat Beechdale Academy, Bluecoat Primary Academy, The Nottingham Emmanuel School and Sixth Form, The Long Eaton School, Lees Brook Academy, Alvaston Moor Academy, Bluecoat Trent Academy and the Bluecoat SCITT Alliance (School Centred Initial Teacher Training).

Our aim as a Trust is to shine a spotlight nationally and internationally on our inclusive ethos so that more schools and academies can be encouraged to take up our approach to inclusive, enriching, knowledge based teaching, preparing young people for lifelong learning based firmly on our Christian principles.

The growth of the Trust is a truly exciting time for prospective candidates who are looking to further their careers in a dynamic learning community that has opportunity at every point to share and learn from each other in order to become the best that we can be.

We are proud of our diverse student population and passionate to create a staff team reflective of this diversity. We actively welcome applications from all backgrounds and you can be assured of a warm welcome at Archway.

We believe

- That a Christian ethos underpins and informs all that we do.
- That the focus of the Trust is to promote collaboration between schools within a strategic locality in order to secure mutual improvement.
- That through managed collaboration between academies there will be increased and improved opportunities for the development of all staff, students/children, parents and community.
- In the development of a broad and balanced curriculum that supports young people's personal development and preparation in life.
- That the family of academies within the Trust, working together, will secure continuity and progression for all.
- That there should be high expectation for all children/students and young people whatever their circumstances or starting point and addressing disadvantage.
- That, through its structures and work, the Trust can create and support effective Governance for all members.
- That, through the Trust's work across its academies, expertise and capacity will be developed so that they can be support with their development needs and economies of scale achieved.

Trust Ethos, Mission, Vision and Values

The Trust believes in the transformational power of education for each individual and that this is enhanced through collaborative working between the academies.

Working Together, Transforming Lives

Our Schools

Bluecoat Aspley Academy

Bluecoat Academy Aspley is the largest school in the Trust and was the founder of Archway Learning Trust (previously known as Bluecoat Academies Trust). The Academy is both distinctively Christian and inclusive with all students being part of a large, diverse and multi-ethnic family that we are very proud to be a part of. Bluecoat Aspley Academy is a School of Sanctuary, welcoming students and families from all backgrounds.

Bluecoat Aspley
believe in yourself, in others, in God

Bluecoat Wollaton Academy

Bluecoat Wollaton Academy has 800 learners and is both distinctively Christian and inclusive, with a relentless ambition to enable every member of our Academy 'family' to be the best they can be. Bluecoat Wollaton was graded as 'Outstanding' in all categories in its Ofsted inspection in 2018. The school's outcomes place it consistently in the top 10% in the country and it was also awarded the highly coveted World Class Schools Quality Mark, which is awarded to the top schools in the country.

Bluecoat Beechdale Academy

Bluecoat Beechdale Academy is a growing school, with over 800 students on roll. The numbers have increased each year since our sponsorship began and we are delighted with the growing confidence that local families are expressing by making Beechdale their first choice school in increasing numbers. Bluecoat Beechdale Academy is not formally designated as a Church of England Academy, but shares the ethos and many of the Archway values.

The Nottingham Emmanuel School

The Nottingham Emmanuel School is a Church of England secondary and Sixth Form, with 1,000 students, including over 140 in the Sixth Form. The £25 million site is located near the banks of the River Trent in West Bridgford. The School is a diverse community, serving families and students from every academic, social, faith and ethnic background. Emmanuel has been praised nationally for its outstanding work as an effective, inclusive Church school.

Bluecoat SCITT

Based at Bluecoat Aspley Academy, the Bluecoat SCITT offers school based Teacher training in a range of schools and subjects. As an accredited provider of school based teacher training, we are committed to training outstanding teachers to work within the East Midlands region. Our comprehensive one year School Direct Training Programme is offered for both Primary and Secondary trainees, as well as a salaried option in certain subjects.

Bluecoat Trent Academy

The Bluecoat Trent Academy opened its doors in September 2021 with the founding cohort of Year 7 pupils. The new build for the academy will be built on the former site of Clarendon College, on the edge of Forest Fields, close to Mapperley Park. Whilst the new academy is being constructed BTA will, for the first two years, be based in its own building on the site of Bluecoat Aspley Academy on Aspley Lane. The school will be underpinned by the ethos of all the Archway academies whilst establishing its own unique vision and values.

The Long Eaton School

The Long Eaton School with 1103 students is built on a long tradition of academic success, dating back to 1910. The school has gained an excellent reputation for the quality of its educational provision and its developments in Literacy and Numeracy have earned the school the prestigious Quality Mark and our approaches have been shared nationally as a model of good practice.

Lees Brook Academy

Lees Brook Academy based in Derby has 1,120 students and is a school that puts its students at the heart of everything it does. The school's motto 'Lead, Believe, Create, Succeed' was chosen by its students and is at the core of everything that the school does. Lees Brook is passionate about its extra-curricular provision in particular the thriving Duke of Edinburgh scheme. Lees Brook is a school that cares for the people within it.

Lees Brook Academy

Alvaston Moor Academy

Our Academy vision is at the heart of everything we do, 'Ambition, Manners and Achievement'. We also recognise the importance of positive relationships, equality and respect. Situated in the heart of the City of Derby, it serves a diverse local community and serves families from many different backgrounds. The curriculum offered is broad and specifically designed to engage and challenge its students.

Alvaston Moor Academy

Bluecoat Bentinck Primary Academy

Bluecoat Bentinck Primary Academy officially joined of Archway Learning Trust in September 2023, becoming our second primary academy. The school has a proud and rich history of serving the children and community of Nottingham since 1880; we are delighted to be part of its next chapter! Bluecoat Bentinck is a popular, diverse and multi-cultural Academy in the heart of Nottingham City. The Academy's vision of 'Together We Make a Difference' underpins our commitment to work together to achieve our common purpose of transforming lives of the children we serve. Staff at Bentinck are committed to supporting and teaching the diverse cohort of learners, creating the conditions to enable all children to thrive in their education. Bentinck is a happy, calm and welcoming place to be where children are kind, respectful and are proud to represent Bluecoat Bentinck.

School Locations

Welcome from the Principal, Mr Mark Shipman

Thank you very much for your interest in the role at The Long Eaton School. The school itself is a vibrant place to work and learn. We expect everyone to be the best they can and are supported to achieve this through our values – respect, ambition, academic excellence and the importance of community.

I am extremely proud to be Principal at The Long Eaton School. Our students are wonderful young people, keen to learn. Our staff are hardworking, professional individuals who are committed to the community we serve. The togetherness of students and staff is what makes our school a special place to work. Relationships between staff and students are extremely strong. There is also a close knit and supportive staff team ethic.

Our school is part of The Archway Learning Trust which is an organisation serving Primary and Secondary Academies. As a group of schools we believe in the power of education to transform lives, and are committed to ensuring that all students excel academically, can positively contribute to their community, and are supported in their wider well-being. These values influence every decision taken for staff, for students and our community.

Archway Trust, and Academies within the trust, demonstrate a strong commitment to staff CPD and staff wellbeing. If you join The Long Eaton School, you will be inducted, supported and developed in a deliberate way from before you even take up post.

Above everything we put young people first and seek to recruit adults who share this view. We work with students, parents and families to provide an experience that enables them to achieve as well as they can and prepare them for the next stages of their education and life. We insist on classrooms and corridors that are respectful, orderly places where everyone is expected to display positive and mature attitudes.

Applying for a new job is a huge investment of time and energy. I would encourage you to seek out any information you need to make the important decision to apply and I welcome visits to our school in advance of applications wherever this might be helpful.

I wish you the absolute best with your application and thank you for taking the time to consider The Long Eaton School as a place of employment.

The Vacancy

The Trust is seeking a self-motivated and passionate candidate who can fulfil the role of Level 2 Teaching Assistant for The Long Eaton School.

As a Teaching Assistant at The Long Eaton School, you will have the opportunity to embody the Schools ethos of inclusivity. The Learning Support department supports a wide range of students allowing staff the unique opportunity to develop skills across subjects, SEND needs and a variety of provisions. You will work as an inclusion champion ensuring that students are able to access the academic, social and well-being provision on offer at the School.

Level 2 Teaching Assistants have a leadership and small group teaching role within the Learning Support Base. These roles are dependent on level of experience and level of expertise. However, level 2 Teaching Assistants will take on the role of supporting a team of Level 1 Teaching Assistants. Level 2 Teaching Assistants are role models for other staff who are developing their Level 1 Teaching Assistant roles, and will liaise closely with Pastoral Leads, Curriculum Leads and external agencies where appropriate. Level 2 Teaching Assistants work closely with both the SENDCo and Autism Resource Centre Lead. This is a rewarding role and opportunity for the right candidate with the flexibility of creating a post that will match existing experience and skills. If you would like the job satisfaction of being part of a passionate and committed team, genuinely making a real difference to student's lives, then we would love to hear from you.

Candidates should pay attention to the job description/person specification and explain within their application how they meet the criteria, whilst also describing what they will bring to the post from their own knowledge and experience.

The role will be based at The Long Eaton School but the post holder may at any time be required to support or work at any of the sites within Archway Learning Trust.
