

Premises Assistant

Salary: £26,873 - £28,282 per year

Job type: Full Time, Permanent

Start date: ASAP

Job description

Due to promotion and expansion, we have opportunities for Site Assistants to join our Trust on a full-time, permanent basis.

You will provide efficient and effective support, ensuring that the security and general appearance of school buildings and surrounding areas are maintained.

To be successful, you will:

- have experience in facilities maintenance (inc. plumbing, electrical work, and carpentry)
- be reliable and willing to work evenings and weekends

About us

At Fairfax Multi-Academy Trust, we enrich lives and transform futures. Our four academies in and around Birmingham offer an outstanding quality of education, recognising that all our children are individuals and delivering exceptional pastoral care to ensure their happiness. Whilst we place strong emphasis on academic achievement, we take a holistic view of education and maintain exciting extra curricular programmes to create the well-rounded young adults of tomorrow. We're also creating outstanding careers that could take you anywhere within our network – and take your future anywhere you want to go.

Benefits

When you join Fairfax Multi-Academy Trust, you join a nurturing family where your professional satisfaction and personal happiness really count. You can expect heavy investment in your career development alongside an outstanding package of benefits, including a generous pension scheme, employee recognition and assistance programmes, Bike2Work and green car schemes, the Perkbox wellness hub and discount platform, and much more. As to the future? Well, that's entirely up to you, with the only limit on your progression being your ambition and abilities.
