Living & Working in Borneo

Professional Package & Economic Benefits

At Knewton Global Schools Miri, we offer a competitive and rewarding package that makes your international teaching experience financially worthwhile. Our salary structure is competitive in the region and comes with a generous EPF (Employees Provident Fund) contribution — offering a valuable opportunity to save annually and make partial withdrawal for travel, housing, or future plans. Benefits include medical allowances, subsidised school places for dependent children, and flights at the start and end of contract. We recognise the commitment international educators make, and we provide the support and stability to make your time here both professionally fulfilling and personally enriching.

Living in Malaysia: Culture, Safety, and Diversity

Malaysia is one of Southeast Asia's most welcoming and culturally rich nations. With a harmonious blend of Malay, Chinese, Indian, and Indigenous cultures, the country is known for its diverse festivals, friendly communities, and world-famous cuisine. English is widely spoken, and daily life is easy to navigate thanks to good infrastructure and amenities. Malaysia is also among the safest countries in the region, with low crime rates and a reputation for respectful coexistence. Whether exploring temples, enjoying night markets, or relaxing with locals, you'll find that Malaysia is a warm and inviting place to call home.

Why Sarawak? Culture, Nature, and Community

Sarawak, on the island of Borneo, is Malaysia's most culturally diverse and naturally spectacular state. Home to more than 40 ethnic groups, Sarawak offers a unique insight into Indigenous traditions, rich arts, and a welcoming, community-oriented lifestyle. The state is celebrated for its genuine multiculturalism, tolerance, and strong cultural identity, all wrapped in a peaceful and relaxed way of life. Whether you're trekking through the rainforest, attending a traditional festival, or sampling local delicacies, life in Sarawak is an opportunity to live and teach in a setting unlike any other.

Miri: The Best of City and Nature

Miri is a vibrant coastal city that strikes the perfect balance between urban convenience and natural beauty. With low traffic, a relaxed pace, and a warm, community-driven atmosphere, it's an ideal place to live and work. There are excellent amenities, international supermarkets, cafes, fitness centres, and outdoor spaces for running, hiking, and beach activities. Located close to both the South China Sea and lush rainforests, Miri offers week-end escapes within minutes of your doorstep. It's a place where well-being, health, and simplicity are part of everyday life.

Travel Opportunities in Malaysia and Beyond

Miri is not only a gateway to Borneo's natural wonders, but also a springboard for regional exploration. Just a short flight away are the vibrant cities of Kuching, Kota Kinabalu, and Kuala Lumpur, while international destinations like Singapore, Bali, Bangkok, and Ho Chi Minh City are within easy reach. For nature lovers, Sarawak is home to UNESCO World Heritage sites such as Gunung Mulu National Park and Niah Caves, as well as countless opportunities to explore rivers, highlands, and hidden beaches. Your school holidays become opportunities for adventure and discovery.
