

About Sherrardswood

Sherrardswood School, founded in 1928, is a highly regarded and successful independent co-educational day school with approximately 320 pupils aged 2 to 18. Our location and beautiful grounds provide the ideal setting for creating a secure and happy atmosphere, which encourages each child to develop their gifts and unlock their potential.

“Parents are highly appreciative of the provision of information and of the education and care provided for their children”

ISI Inspection Report September 2014

We place great emphasis on providing a supportive and caring educational environment and pastoral care is a key element of life at Sherrardswood. With small classes throughout, teachers are able to educate, encourage and nurture pupils on an individual level and help in the development of their knowledge, character and personality.

“The contribution of arrangements for pastoral care is excellent”

ISI Inspection Report September 2014

Sherrardswood pupils benefit from excellent academic achievement, within a broad and varied curriculum, the foundations for which we provide in our Prep school.

We provide the ideal setting for creating a secure and happy atmosphere, which encourages each child to develop their gifts and unlock their potential. Our pupils benefit from a broad and varied curriculum and the quality of the teaching leads to excellent academic achievement with outstanding results for children.

“Pupils of all ages have excellent attitudes to their work; they are motivated to do well and feel thoroughly supported in their efforts by their teachers”

ISI Inspection Report September 2014

