Join us at St Richard Gwyn Catholic High School and be a key part of our happy and successful team

Teacher of English (Maternity Cover)

Start Date: 1 September 2021   Salary Range: MPS/UPS

The Governors of St. Richard Gwyn Catholic High School are looking to appoint a highly-motivated, creative and innovative teacher of English. The successful applicant will teach across KS3 and 4; having the opportunity to shape and innovate our learners' experience as we develop and refine our practice in readiness for the new curriculum. There is a possibility of teaching A level English for a suitably qualified teacher.

We welcome applications from candidates who are passionate about English and who are able to enthuse, engage and motivate learners. We expect the successful candidate to support the subject leader in developing the English curriculum across the school. We intend to provide a rich programme of extra-curricular experiences for pupils to enjoy.

St Richard Gwyn is a successful 11-18 mixed Catholic comprehensive school in the Diocese of Wrexham, serving the population of Flintshire, North Wales. With approximately 785 students on roll including the sixth form, the school has a strong ethos and is a vibrant Christian community. The school is located near the A55 and is easily accessible to north Wales and the north west of England.

Informal visits to the school are welcome.
If you would like to arrange a visit, please contact Mrs Jones, Business Manager
