

Elevate Your Teaching Career in Angola's Coastal Gem

A New Chapter Awaits in Luanda

Step into a teaching role where your expertise meets a world of opportunity, framed by the Atlantic's edge in Angola's dynamic capital. Luanda hums with vitality, its coastal charm a backdrop to a career-defining move. At its core lies the Ilha de Luanda, home to The British School of Angola - a place where professional ambition aligns with a refined expat lifestyle. For the discerning UK educator, this is more than a job; it's a sophisticated leap forward.

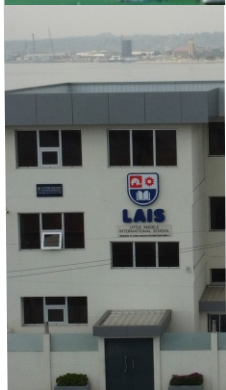

The British School of Angola: Leadership Meets Legacy

Tucked within Clube Naval, Luanda's premier yacht club and maritime hub, BSA is a beacon of educational excellence, guided by the Director - a British leader with a global footprint. As the International Lead Facilitator for Best Practice Network's NPQ, Martin's commitment to developing leaders worldwide shines through. From shaping headteachers across continents to redesigning leadership programmes for the likes of GEMS and Harrow. Here, he leads a school that mirrors his vision: modern classrooms buzzing with students from over 20 nationalities, cutting-edge facilities, and a culture of growth through tailored workshops. Across the road, the beach beckons, while Clube Naval's perks—sailing, paddle courts, and a sleek swimming pool—elevate your day. "I'm here to build leaders, not just teach lessons," Martin asserts, his track record of transforming schools from Dubai to Malaysia underpinning every move. This is where you'll thrive, shaping futures under a master of educational leadership.

Living with Ease: Your Ilha Lifestyle

Your new base is a fully furnished apartment, just a 10-minute drive from the Ilha de Luanda, courtesy of the school. Maid service and dedicated drivers streamline your life—commutes and errands effortlessly handled. After hours, the Ilha de Luanda unfolds its allure. Cafe Del Mar offers oceanfront dining with impeccable seafood, while Miami Beach blends live music and crafted cocktails with a vibrant yet polished crowd. For weekend indulgence, Lookal Beach Club delivers sunloungers and beachside service, turning relaxation into a refined ritual. It's a lifestyle that balances ease with elegance, perfectly suited to the modern professional.

Luanda

The Financial Edge: Tax-Free Living and a Generous Allowance

Luanda's financial allure is a standout perk. Your salary is tax-free, keeping every pound intact. Add a $300(USD) monthly Kwanza living allowance, and your daily expenses—dining, travel, leisure—are covered. For UK teachers, this means your net salary, the take-home you'd earn back home, flows straight into your savings account, untouched. The allowance ensures you live well here with no further outgoings. "It's a financial reset I didn't expect," shares Filomena, a British colleague. This is wealth-building, elegantly executed.

A Community That Elevates: Your Network Awaits

Join a global cadre of educators under the Director's leadership, where his passion for developing leaders fosters a tight-knit, ambitious team. Social moments—beachside gatherings or rooftop drinks at Thomson Art House—spark connections over skyline vistas. With an 95% retention rate from his past roles, his knack for building thriving communities is undeniable. This is a circle that inspires and uplifts.

Your Move to Luanda: A Sophisticated Choice

For the UK educator craving a role that marries career prestige with a polished lifestyle, Luanda is calling. Under our stewardship – forged through his global leadership - BSA offers a platform to excel. It's ambition with finesse, opportunity with style. Ready to elevate your path?

Discover Luanda: Culture and Adventure at Your Doorstep

Luanda's appeal stretches beyond the Ilha's shores. Visit the Church of Nossa Senhora do Cabo, a 16th-century relic, or climb to Fortaleza de São Miguel for panoramic views and a taste of Angola's past. For a striking detour, the Miradouro da Luna unveils lunar-like landscapes nearby.

For the adventurous, Cabo Ledo beckons with surf-ready waves (lessons available), while Quiçama National Park offers giraffes and elephants in the wild. Prefer serenity? A boat trip along the Kwanza River delivers tranquil beauty. It's a curated blend of culture and exploration, ideal for the sophisticated soul.

The British School of Angola®
a trademark of Little Angels International School