

Lecturer

Role Description

About the role

The role of lecturer is to equip our students with skills for their future through the delivery of outstanding education and training and inspire students to achieve their potential. This role offers you the opportunity to do this every day. It is the job satisfaction that comes from this that makes a teaching role special.

The key roles of a Lecturer are to deliver excellent teaching each year, completing the relevant preparation and marking that supports this, and to set SMART targets to enable students to reach their potential.

Main Duties

- You will teach and assess on a range of courses and learning programmes, appropriate to your skills and qualifications. You will undertake all necessary planning, preparation and assessment to ensure excellent teaching and learning occurs.
- You will undertake the necessary administrative tasks associated with your role, which include learner registration, attendance, record keeping, tracking, and reporting and for most 16-18 learners, liaison with parents and guardians.
- You will be expected to meet normal demands of an Academic Calendar including the production of Schemes of Work, planning for lessons and meeting Quality and awarding body requirements.
- You'll prepare students for higher levels of study (including Higher Education) and vitally for the world of work, developing specific vocational work and employability skills through the curriculum, and by using external/internal links.
- You will work with the Pastoral and Progression Coach and course team to facilitate our Next Steps Passport and actively promote work experience opportunities in conjunction with work experience co-ordinators.
- As well as teaching, Lecturers play an important role in providing pre and on-course guidance that supports learners through to successful outcomes. You will therefore undertake activities which will include learner interviews and enrolment, and other marketing and public relations activities associated with the course. This may include liaison with parents and guardians schools, industry, the community and other organisations to identify requirements, promote the College and recruit learners.
- You will have overall responsibility of the academic and pastoral care of a group or groups, which will include the arrangement of support requirements for students in communication with your Curriculum Team Leader / Curriculum Leader and Progress Tutor.
- You will be responsible for ensuring the progression and success of each student for which you are group tutor. This includes:
  - You will keep up to date records and have responsibility for all relevant student information, both pastoral and academic, e.g. Attendance, punctuality, support needs, tracking of assignments/tests, unit completion etc.
  - You will set targets using an electronic individual learning programme (eILP) for each student
  - Monitoring and tracking of enrolment, registration and exam claims.
- Academic rigour, transparency and validity are vital. All work carried out must satisfy external body requirements and be in line with College policy and procedure. You will prepare relevant submissions and liaise with accrediting bodies. You will also undertake Internal Quality Assessment/Moderation duties to implement College Quality Assurance processes and procedures for learning programmes.
