

'We learn not for school but for life'

Oswestry School is an independent, co-educational day & boarding school, with a 11-18 senior school of c.350 pupils (130 of whom board) and a 4-11 junior school (Bellan House) of c.120 pupils. The strong ethos of the school is reflected in its fabulous pastoral care and sense of community. The School recently underwent inspection, with an excellent report. As well as providing a fantastic learning and living environment for young people, Oswestry School offers an enjoyable, challenging and rewarding working environment.

Oswestry School is located on the outskirts of its market town on the Welsh borders, with easy access to the great outdoors as well as good links to the local town of Shrewsbury and the cities of Chester, Manchester and Birmingham.

Assistant Head (co-curriculum)

The co-curricular programme is an integral part of school life. Oswestry School seeks a senior teacher to lead the strategic direction and coherent development of an extensive co-curricular provision. This is an exciting opportunity to lead a substantial portfolio and to differentiate Oswestry School through the pursuit of excellence across an impressively diverse co-curricular programme. The appointed candidate will blend a track record of successful leadership experience, the capacity to manage a complex and wide-ranging remit and the strategic skills to develop and deliver an inspiring vision for the first-class co-curricular provision. Outstanding communication skills and the personal authority to build strong relationships with pupils, staff, parents and other stakeholders is essential, as is a deep commitment to the School's aims and ethos.

The role is expected to be offered to a candidate who is able to join the teaching staff, however, no specific subject area is preferred.

For an informal discussion regarding the post, please contact Mr Julian Noad, Headmaster, on 01691 655711 or email at headmaster@oswestryschool.org.uk.

Other responsibilities could be considered in combination with this role: Housemaster/mistress and Head of Boarding. Please see the TES website for details.

Accommodation might be available if this is taken as a residential role. Generous fee discounts for staff children, as well as a medical support package and use of facilities, help emphasise that Oswestry School is a community which cares for its employees.

Closing dates for the above position: Thursday 24 April 2019 at noon

Provisional interview dates for the above position: Friday 3 May, Monday 6 May or Wednesday 8 May 2019

The school reserves the right to offer the post at any stage in the appointment process or not to offer the post.
