with the possibility for a R&R for the right Candidate

We are seeking to appoint a dedicated Science Teacher to join our thriving and well-resourced Science department. This is a fantastic opportunity for a Teacher who is enthusiastic about promoting a passion for Science in pupils and wants to be central to the development of outstanding teaching and pupil achievement.

A strong leadership team will support this candidate in their ambition to become the best teacher they can be by nurturing professional development and staff welling.

Our values run throughout our community ensuring the pupils have the aspiration to achieve, the character to succeed and the commitment to pursue excellence. We are a fully inclusive school which embraces diversity and celebrates cultural diversity of our community

Results have risen rapidly in recent years and the successful candidate will have the skills and enthusiasm to make a significant contribution to our continued improvement. Our journey to ensure improved whole school progress and attainment outcomes for all learners is already underway, this was evidenced during our most recent OFSTED inspection which rated us as Good across every aspect of the school and highlighted our commitment to continued and rapid improvement throughout.

Chase High School is a mixed, mainstream secondary school located in Westcliff-on-Sea, Essex. It educates more than 1,300 pupils aged 11-18 from over 40 countries.
