JOB DESCRIPTION

TEACHER OF ECONOMICS

Reporting to the Head of Department, the Teacher of Economics will join a committed and high-achieving department. Teaching Economics to Key Stage 5 and supporting the development of extra-curricular activities. The post holder will be a self-motivated, innovative and outward-looking teacher with a desire to create exciting lessons to deliver the Economics curriculum, whilst also playing a full part in departmental improvement projects. The ability to teach Government and Politics would be desirable but not essential.

All teachers are appointed by the Headmistress and are expected to:

- Have a strong passion for the subject and its energetic and accessible delivery in the classroom.
- Enjoy enhancing the delivery of Economics in the school outside of the classroom including assisting with the organisation of trips.
- Inspire confidence in the pupils so that they ask questions and articulate their own understanding.
- Have a proficiency in ICT; its use in the classroom and as a data tool.
- Plan and prepare relevant material to teach classes allocated to them, according to the policies of the department. Keep a record of their teaching.
- Set and mark pupils' work regularly and appropriately; record marks, monitor and assess progress and write reports as required.
- Work positively and co-operatively as a member of a team to include liaising and working with colleagues in operating mark schemes, researching materials, keeping abreast of new developments and developing new courses.
- Take a full part in professional development including training.
- Share in pastoral responsibility for all pupils in school and especially for those in their tutor or teaching groups, liaising where appropriate with pastoral staff.
- Maintain good order and discipline among pupils, safeguarding their health and safety at all times when they are the responsibility of the school. The teacher must be familiar with the school and departmental policies on discipline and health and safety.
- Share in supervisory and general duties; uphold good standards of behaviour and punctuality among pupils.
- Attend staff meetings and participate in working groups as required.
- Attend Assemblies and as often as is reasonable other school functions, playing an active part in wider aspects of school life including extra-curricular activities.
- Attend Parents' Evenings.
- Be a part of the School's performance management programme.
- Adhere to School policies.

In addition to the above, the post holder will carry out any other professional duties as reasonably required by the Head.

The High School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Applicants will be required to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service.
