BURLINGTON
HOUSE SCHOOL

“Burlington House is fast becoming London’s gold-standard for specialist education. It has built on the sure foundations of the dyslexia-specialist teaching of The Moat School, with a creative curriculum and expert training, to create a supportive through-school for a range of specific learning needs.”

Burlington House School

Burlington House School is a unique and successful Independent Day School in London for children with dyslexia and associated SpLDs, consisting of separate Prep, Secondary and Sixth Form sites in Hammersmith and Fulham.

“Burlington House is fast becoming London’s gold-standard for specialist education” (Good Schools Guide, 2023).

We are seeking to appoint a full-time Learning Support Assistant to work alongside our specialist staff, to guide pupils in their academic and pastoral progress through Key Stage 3 and 4 (Years 9, 10, 11).

This position will be based at the Burlington House Senior School site in Fulham. Class sizes are favourable, with no more than 12 pupils per class at Key Stage 3 and smaller groups at GCSE Level. Candidates should have strong skills in ICT, communication and organisation, as well as excellent interpersonal skills. All staff and pupils are provided with a laptop computer.

We offer an excellent professional development and remuneration package and the opportunity to apply and develop your expertise in a genuinely all-through educational setting. Burlington House School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. You will be required to undertake an enhanced DBS check.

“The school’s learning environment focuses on the arts, drama and physical education, catering to children who may not thrive in a mainstream setting. Burlington has helped students achieve the best GCSE results for an SpLD specialist school in the UK.” (The Week UK’s Schools Review, 2024).

Burlington House School’s focus on integrated support in a broad range of academic and creative subjects is central to the way we support our pupils to discover their own pathway to success. This opportunity is perfect for someone who wants to make a real difference to young people’s lives, as well as develop their professional standing in the fastest-growing group of specialist schools in the sector.

The Cavendish Education Group

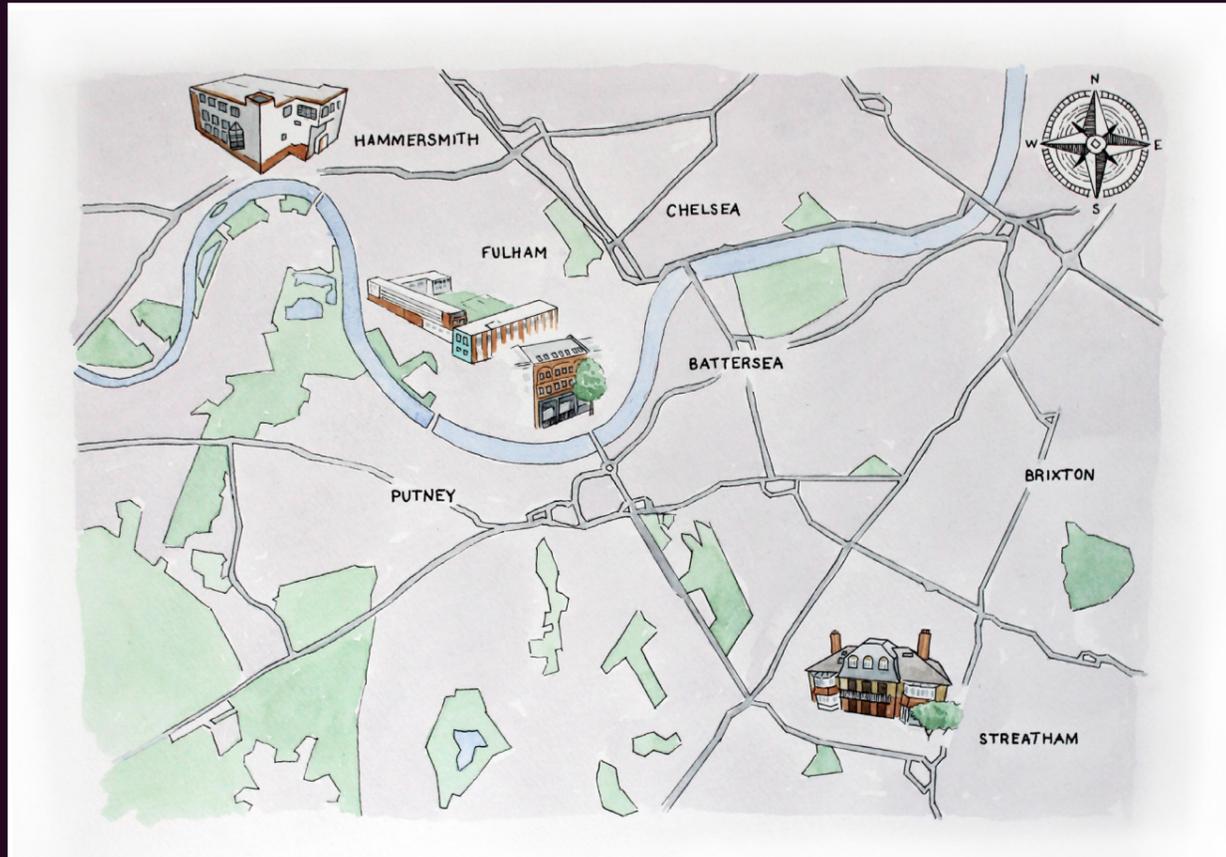

In Sept 2017, Burlington House School (Formerly The Moat School) joined the Cavendish Education Group - a family of eleven schools focused exclusively on enabling children and young people with unique learning profiles (dyslexia, dyspraxia, autism and social and communication needs) to be the very best they can be.

The schools in the Cavendish Group do not focus on the things a child can’t do - rather, they focus on an individual’s strengths, talents and interests, and wholeheartedly believe that ‘if a child can’t learn the way we teach, then we must teach the way they learn’.

Each school has its own distinctive character, atmosphere and facilities, but they all provide a well-rounded, differentiated and skilfully-supported academic curriculum. Sport, technology, the arts, outdoor education and life skills all feature highly in enrichment activities.

Headteachers' Welcome

Myself and all the staff are very pleased you are interested in joining the Burlington team. We are a small school that's part of a big community and we would be delighted for you to help us grow even more.

Of course our main focus is to help and inspire the young people who pass through our doors, but we also take immense pride in supporting our staff inside and outside of school. I hope to see you in the corridors soon.

Best wishes

Nicola Lovell
