

Mathematics Teacher (Maternity Cover)

September 2021

We are looking for a committed, passionate, and enthusiastic part-time (0.5, equivalent of 2.5 days) Mathematics Teacher, with the ability to teach Mathematics to GCSE level, as well as teach the IB, to join the Mathematics department at Fulham Senior, working with children from Year 9 to Year 12. This is a chance to join a thriving team and help to contribute to excellent mathematics provision at an exciting time for the School. We have recently transferred to new, bespoke facilities and are looking ahead to the launch of our Sixth Form this September 2021. There is a real opportunity to play a role in how our offer takes shape over coming years. The role provides the opportunity to train and prepare for the IB Diploma Programme.

Fulham Senior is part of Fulham School: an independent co-educational school for children from Reception upwards. Co-education and celebrating diverse abilities across academic, creative and sporting pursuits are at the heart of all we do. Teachers are expected to play a full role in the pastoral and extracurricular life of the school.

Fulham School has its own competitive pay range and benefits. Our campuses are located in the heart of Fulham and well-connected to public transport routes.

Fulham School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff to share this commitment. Applicants must be willing to undergo a number of safeguarding checks including an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check, reference checks with previous employers and, where applicable, Barred List and Prohibition checks.
