Personal information

It is essential that you complete this section as fully as you can, as missing information may delay the recruitment process.

Contact details

These are the details we will use to contact you about your application if necessary.

Employment details

All employment history should be given with full contact details.

A brief explanation of your main duties and responsibilities in a role should be given. If you wish to give more detail on a role you may do so in the Supporting information section.

All periods of unemployment or gaps in employment of three months or more, must be explained in the „Employment History Gaps“ section.

Education and qualifications

On this page you can enter any qualifications you feel are relevant or necessary for the post you are applying for.

Original copies of any relevant qualifications will be required to be verified for the successful candidate.

Additional qualifications

If you have any qualifications that do not appear on the subject list please enter details in this text box.

Professional memberships and training

If you have professional memberships or training, you feel that are relevant to your application, please ensure that you provide complete and full information to support these.

Supporting information

The statement box in this section is your chance to really explain why you'd suit the role for which you are applying for, whilst addressing the knowledge and skills/person specification section in the job description.

You should limit your supporting statement to one A4 page of text (depending on font size).

This is the only place on the application form to demonstrate how your experience and skills suit the role. Additional documents or CV's may not be accepted – please check with the school.

In your statement, as well as providing any additional information about you which you feel is relevant to the role, please ensure that you have:

- Provided information, examples and evidence to illustrate how you meet each of the „knowledge and skills“ criteria in the job description. You should refer to any relevant experience acquired inside work and if appropriate, outside of work, (e.g. community, voluntary or leisure interests).

To be selected for interview you must demonstrate that you meet these criteria to a greater relevance and/or depth than others.

- Evidenced your suitability, beyond making simple statements.

For example, if the job description requires that you are “highly motivated with excellent communication and numeracy skills”, simply saying “I am highly motivated with excellent communication and numeracy skills”, will not be sufficient. You must include descriptions and examples from your experience (in and/ or out of work), which illustrate you having and using these skills.

1. Your present employer or, if unemployed, your last employer; AND
2. Your former employer i.e. your employer prior to your present or last employer; OR

  - a. Your current or former teacher, lecturer or tutor
  - b. Some other person of a profession" who can comment on your suitability for the role eg policeman, doctor, solicitor etc.

You cannot use a family member or a friend as a referee. This applies even if you work for a family member.

All referees must be over 18 years old.
