

Malton School

A Specialist Science School

SUPPORT INSPIRE THRIVE

Malton School is a high achieving and over-subscribed 11 to 18 school situated between York and the North York Moors National Park. This is an exciting time as the school is growing and moving from strength to strength.

Lead Teaching Assistant

This is an established post to start ASAP
37 hours per week, term time (including training days)
Grade G (SCP 13 - 18) £24,948 to £27,344 +£1,500 Recruitment & Retention Annual Payment (FTE)
£22,989 to £25,072 per annum (actual)

Malton School is seeking a Lead Teaching Assistant to work with the Assistant SENCO overseeing the day to day running of the SEN team. You will be responsible for the timetabling of TAs to meet the needs of the students across the school as well as having line management responsibilities. You will also have your own workload of intervention classes and student support; this is a great opportunity for an experienced practitioner to step up in responsibility.

We are looking for:

- Commitment to ensuring that students maximise every opportunity to achieve.
- Reflective practitioner with a desire to work collaboratively and to share best practice.
- Excellent team player with strong leadership, communication and organisational skills.

We can offer:

- A welcoming school where staff / student relationships are excellent.
- A vibrant, supportive community which engenders a real sense of belonging.
- The opportunity to join a friendly and supportive team.
- A varied and interesting role.
- A coaching culture which is a key focus for bespoke staff development.
