- Create an engaging and supportive learning environment that promotes student success in Arabic
- Create differentiated learning experiences for diverse proficiency levels, from emergent phases to Language and Literature level
- Develop and implement assessment tasks aligned with MYP and DP criteria for both subject groups
- Assess student understanding and progress, and provide useful feedback

- Prepare students for the MYP e-assessment and DP examinations in both Language B and Language A
 - Maintain detailed documentation of unit planners and curriculum on ManageBac, as well as use Google Classroom for daily planning
 - Support students in developing their academic Arabic language skills while preserving their cultural identity
 - Implement appropriate strategies for teaching Arabic literature and linguistics
 - Select and analyze appropriate literary and non-literary texts for Language & Literature courses
 - Collaborate with the Language A and B departments to ensure curriculum alignment and progression
 - Integrate Arabic culture and heritage into the curriculum and promote it throughout the school
 - Participate in collaborative planning and professional development
 - Develop and build on strong, positive relationships with each student and their family
 - Collaborate with colleagues and other stakeholders to best support our students
 - Role model our school's Mission, Vision, and Values
 - Understand and ensure school policies are reflected in practice.

Experiences

The successful candidate will:

- Hold relevant teaching qualifications in Arabic language and Literature
- Have proven experience teaching both Language Acquisition and Language & Literature courses within the MYP and the DP
- Demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of IB MYP and DP frameworks in both subject groups
- Have excellent classroom management skills
- Show expertise in Arabic language teaching methodologies
- Have experience with IB assessment practices and moderation
- Demonstrate the ability to teach Arabic literature at an advanced level
- Be proficient in teaching Modern Standard Arabic and familiar with regional dialects
- Show excellence in differentiation strategies for mixed-ability groups
- Have strong digital literacy skills for enhanced language teaching

- Demonstrate the ability to work collaboratively in a multilingual department
 - Demonstrate a commitment to personal, professional learning and growth
 - Have the skills to teach in distance, blended, and face to face contexts
