Class Teacher KS2 MPR/UPR + SEN Point (£2,539)

A unique opportunity to join an OUTSTANDING School from September 2024

The Ashley School Academy Trust is a very successful day/residential school for pupils with complex and moderate learning difficulties (MLD), Key Stages 2 to 4.

We are looking for an outstanding class teacher who is strong across all curriculum areas and with a passion for making a difference to join our team from September 2024. You will be joining a professional, friendly and supportive team committed to improving outcomes for our pupils with moderate and complex needs. We are a forward-thinking school focusing on meeting every child's needs and overcoming any barriers to learning, progress and achievement. The school is proud of its excellent provision. We support and invest in our staff and their continuous professional development, enabling outstanding outcomes for pupils.

The Ashley School Academy Trust is committed to:

- Enabling all pupils to fully participate in our community and beyond;
- Promoting positive relationships;
- Achieving successful outcomes;
- Promoting a safe, secure, supportive and nurturing environment;
- Delivering engaging teaching and developing new skills;
- Promoting a broad, balanced, relevant, coherent and participative curriculum which meets the needs of all our pupils.

Applications welcome from mainstream and special school candidates.
