

Wootton Academy Trust

Head of Psychology

Job Description

Wootton Academy Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Job Description:	At the heart of subject leadership is the provision of professional leadership to secure high quality teaching and learning, effective use of resources, improving standards of achievement for all students, and the promotion of students' personal development and well-being. A Head of Department must provide strategic leadership and direction for the department and ensure that it is managed and organised to meet both Trust wide and local [i.e. departmental] aims and objectives. A Head of Department plays a key role in supporting, guiding and motivating teachers of the department. Heads of Department evaluate the effectiveness of teaching and learning, the department curriculum and progress towards targets for students and staff in order to inform future priorities for the department. The policy and practice of monitoring within a department provides the information for evaluation and action. A Head of Department identifies needs in their own department and recognises that these needs must be considered in relation to the overall needs of the Trust. It is also important that a Head of Department understands how their department contributes to Trust priorities and to the overall education and achievement of all students. Throughout their work, a Head of Department ensures that practices improve the quality of education provided, meet the needs and aspirations of all students and help to continue to raise standards of achievement in the Trust. The details outlined below represent the Trust's supplement to the requirements for a Main Scale Teacher.
