Introduction

Where exceptional education meets outstanding opportunities

The Duke of York's Royal Military School stands as a beacon of excellence in education, blending tradition with innovation to provide a unique and enriching experience for its students. Established in 1803 by His Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York, the school has a rich history rooted in educating the children of military personnel. In 1909, it relocated to its present site in Dover, Kent, where it continues to thrive. In 2010, we became the only state full boarding academy, opening our doors to any family wishing to choose this unique and iconic school for their child's education.

We are committed to nurturing every student, affectionally known as Dukies, to reach their full potential, offering exceptional opportunities both inside and outside the classroom. Our student-centred approach, coupled with a home-from-home atmosphere, fosters the development of essential skills necessary for success in an increasingly competitive world. We are dedicated to supporting, advising, and guiding each student along their chosen path, empowering them to become confident, capable individuals prepared to make a positive impact on society.

Academically, we maintain high standards, significantly outperforming national averages at GCSE. Our students excel, benefiting from small class sizes, dedicated faculty, and a dynamic learning environment. Beyond academics, we offer a rich array of co-curricular activities, providing students with opportunities to explore their interests and talents outside the classroom.

What does it mean to be a Dukie?

Being a Dukie is an esteemed credential to hold, embodying a legacy of excellence and tradition. It represents more than just a label; it symbolises a commitment to personal growth, academic achievement, and a set of enduring values.

To be a Dukie is to be part of a community where opportunities abound for those willing to seize them. We are committed to nurturing every Dukie to reach their full potential, offering exceptional opportunities whether it's through academic pursuits, athletic endeavours, artistic expression, or participation in ceremonial events, we strive to provide a supportive environment where students can thrive and grow.

At our school, being a Dukie means embracing the essential values that have shaped our identity for over 220 years: Courage, Integrity, Respect, Commitment, Loyalty, and Self-Discipline. These values serve as guiding principles, instilling in each student a sense of character and moral fortitude that extends beyond the classroom.

In essence, being a Dukie is a badge of honour, it's a journey marked by growth, camaraderie, and the relentless pursuit of excellence—a journey that prepares students not only for the challenges of today but also for the opportunities of tomorrow.

“Students surprise themselves, leaving with confidence, self-respect, good results and high ambitions.”
