

Prep School Mathematics Teacher

Outline

All Prep School teachers are based in the Prep School section of our Qianhai campus but have use of its wider facilities and specialist areas. They will also find themselves interacting with many of the Senior pupils, especially in co-curricular and House events. It is important that the School is seen as a whole with pupils of any age all part of collective responsibility on the part of teachers.

Teachers at King's have threefold responsibilities: academic, co-curricular and pastoral. Some of the main points of these are listed below but no job description is fully inclusive of what it is to be an effective teacher. In addition, as members of what is still a school in the early stages of its development, it is essential that teachers are flexible and demonstrate a strong 'can-do' spirit.

The role reports to the Head of Prep School or to whomsoever s/he designates as Line Manager.

School Life and Routines

All teachers have shared responsibility for smooth daily running of the School as an entity - and for maintaining the general ethos, routine and pedagogy in line with the King's School's Aims and Ethos – as directed within reason by the Prep School Head and the Executive Principal.

In so doing, they should:

- ensure that the School's rules and policies are maintained
- attend School meetings and public events
- support co-curricular events and activities

Safeguarding, Student Welfare and Pastoral Care

All teachers:

- must ensure that they are fully aware of policies and practices with regard to safeguarding and student welfare
- must ensure that they adhere to the published systems
- must be role models to all students at all times
- must be prepared to do pastoral, tutorial work as designated by school leadership
