Job/Person Summary

Could you be our next Head of School at Liphook C of E Junior School? We are looking for an inspirational leader with strong interpersonal skills, who has a very caring child-centred approach to education, has high expectations and can promote the Christian distinctiveness of the Junior School.

The Infant and Junior Schools are both 3 form entry; they share the same site and work together to provide an exciting, well-sequenced Primary curriculum within a nurturing environment. Both schools were judged as 'Outstanding' during recent Ofsted inspections.

We can offer you:

- an opportunity to play a key role in leading not only in a Junior school, but across the Federation
- outstanding opportunities for professional development
- enthusiastic, happy and well-behaved children
- a highly motivated and professional staff team with an experienced strategic leadership team
- a school dedicated to learning and to ensuring that all our children's social and emotional needs are met
- a very supportive Governing Body and active PTAs

For more information, please see the Head of School pack attached.
