Strings Teacher - self employed

Required for January 2025:

The Norwood School is a forward thinking Performing and Visual Arts School, optimistic and ambitious for all. The outstanding achievement of pupils is testament to this. Norwood consistently outperforms other schools in terms of pupils' progress whatever the pupil's starting point. We achieve this by our commitment to a personalised approach and focus on the individual.

We require an experienced strings teacher to provide their services for 6 hours (approx) a week.

You will be an experienced and dynamic strings teacher (mostly violin with some cello) with a track record of success in developing and progressing young string players and have experience of leading a small to medium size string ensemble.

If you would like to have an informal conversation about this opportunity, or would like to arrange a visit to the school, please do not hesitate to contact Joe Francis, Head of Music francis.j@thenorwoodschool.org

For further details, please contact the Headteachers' PA caliste.s2@thenorwoodschool.org

The Norwood School is a fantastic place to work and learn. We are committed to developing teachers who are passionate about their subject and determined to convey this enthusiasm to their students. As a school we recognise the importance of teacher PPA time, giving 20% timetable allocation to this and a commitment to rarely, if ever, covering for colleagues. Opportunities for internal promotion are maximised and encouraged. We want all of our employees to feel included, bringing their passion, creativity and individuality to work. We value all cultures, backgrounds and experiences and we truly believe that diversity drives innovation.

This Authority is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Norwood School is committed to working towards achieving the Anti Racist School Award. We want to continue to improve race equality within our school while promoting wellbeing for Black, Asian and Ethnic Minority staff, students, parents, carers and those in our community. We are committed to the long term work that is required for institutional change. Join our family and help us inspire every child to choose a remarkable life.
