

Appointment of Teaching Assistant in our Junior School

Accountable to: Head of Junior School

Salary: £6,408.30

Hours: Thursday and Friday - 7.30am – 3.30pm. Term time only.

Job Start: September 2023

A fantastic opportunity has become available for a teaching assistant to join our enthusiastic Junior School team. This post involves supporting our class teachers to provide an excellent education to our pupils and supervising our breakfast club provision between 7.30am and 8.30am.

The ideal candidate will have experience of working in a primary school setting and of working with children with additional needs. Teamwork and excellent communication skills are essential to this role.

Fulneck School is a non-selective independent school for pupils aged 3 to 18 years old. We are nestled in the Moravian settlement of Fulneck, in a valley on the outskirts of the historic market town of Pudsey. There has been a school on the site since 1753, this year we celebrate our 270th year.

Our aim is to deliver an excellent education to all of our pupils, working towards our school values that all of our pupils will work hard, be kind and go well into their adult lives.

Our school benefits from our extensive grounds and facilities, including two full size football pitches, a cricket pavilion, sports hall, and wooded areas.

Our most recent ISI report stated that:

"Overall, pupils at Fulneck School develop into confident, capable, mature and caring young people..."

We are looking for an excellent candidate who:

- Has a passion for children's learning and commitment to the safeguarding of all students
- Has experience of working with children
- Is highly organised
- Believes in inclusion and building resilient, independent learners
- Has high expectations of achievement and behaviour
- Has excellent interpersonal skills and is flexible and adaptable
- Is able to build a trusting relationship with students
- Is able to use initiative
- Minimum of English and Maths GCSE C (or equivalent)
