Welcome to Lord Wandsworth College

Situated on a magnificent 1200 acre campus of rolling countryside, woodland and a working arable farm, Lord Wandsworth College (LWC) provides an inspiring education to approximately 700 boarding and day pupils (co-ed) aged 11-18.

LWC is thriving under the leadership of Adam Williams. Its popularity has been reflected in significantly rising pupil numbers and a transformational vision for education has led to major investment in the campus and facilities of close to £25m. The latest, and most significant, of these capital projects is an £9m state-of-the-art Science Centre, which opened early in 2022.

This is a dynamic and highly successful school on a clearly upward trajectory with significant investment in staff professional development too. Furthermore, the College has won three national awards for Wellbeing and Mental health Initiatives in as many years and continues to celebrate record academic achievement and a range of sporting honours, whilst retaining a strong grasp of the importance of being a grounded school.

Our History

Lord Wandsworth College is named after Baron Sydney Stern, a Liberal MP and the second son of a City banker. Granted a peerage less than four years after winning the seat of Stowmarket in 1891, Stern took the title of Lord Wandsworth in reflection of his many links with the area.

When Lord Wandsworth died in 1912, he left a generous bequest to educate the children of agricultural workers – children who had lost one or both parents and needed the support of a boarding environment.

Lord Wandsworth's Trustees purchased the site on which the College now stands and the first Foundationers arrived in 1922, followed by fee-paying pupils in 1945.

The Foundation

Committed to upholding the wishes of Lord Wandsworth, every year the Lord Wandsworth Foundation offers approximately 50 assisted Foundation places. 2,500 Foundationers have passed through the College since its inception.

The Foundation exists to help children who have lost the support of one or both parents through death, divorce or separation and require a caring and supportive boarding environment in which to thrive. It is led by a team of Trustees, all of whom are governors of LWC and live in the local community.

The day-to-day running of the Foundation, including the selection of Foundationers, is handled by the Admissions team and the Foundation Tutor, who work alongside the Development Director to promote the work of the Foundation.

The 5 Pillars

Our 5 Pillars define a Lord Wandsworth education.

They are:

+1 Do One More Thing

These are the small acts of kindness which all members of the LWC community strive to make part of their daily lives. The emphasis is on the one thing that each person can do to make a conversation or interaction with another person that little bit better.

+2 Be Two Years Ahead

+2 is a phrase that is well-used at LWC. It is an aspiration and a mindset which encourages pupils to stretch themselves two years beyond their current academic level. It's about inspirational teaching and learning, making connections, sharing knowledge, and thinking differently.

+3 Wellbeing and Happiness

LWC aspires to be the most incredible place to live and work for both pupils and staff alike. The College believes happy children are successful children and there is a strong focus on welfare, wellbeing, and good mental health: the triumvirate of the +3 philosophy.

4 Pupil Voice

Schools flourish when pupils have a meaningful, positive input and impact within their environment, and LWC aspires to be the leading school in the UK in terms of pupil voice. Pupils are involved in campus master-planning, exterior and interior building design, staff appraisal, academic feedback, and further enriching the College's dynamic culture.

5 Character Education

Cognitive ability is not the only thing that determines a child's life chances. Character can shape one's destiny. Character is not inherent; it is born of positive experiences, and it can be taught. Character attributes of Fairness, Generosity, Empathy, Loyalty, Gratitude, Courage, Engagement, Creativity, Perseverance, Optimism, Self-control, and Curiosity are taught intentionally at LWC, and a commitment to character education runs throughout the educational experience.

We are a strong team of 11 full- and part-time staff, including a Spanish assistant and a French assistant, and we work cohesively and positively together. We follow the AQA course in French and Spanish for both GCSE and A Level and we have our own CLIL-inspired courses in the 1st and 2nd Form. You will be expected to teach French at KS3, KS4, and KS5, and be confident in preparing pupils for Oxbridge.

All pupils are expected to study a modern foreign language to GCSE, and many choose to study both French and Spanish. We are extremely successful, with a healthy number of students currently studying at A Level, despite the national trends in the take-up of languages. We offer a range of extra-curricular events, such as regular film evenings and theatre visits, and our languages prefects are involved in many departmental and whole-school initiatives. We organise a biennial homestay visit to Montpellier in France and Granada in Spain for our GCSE and A-Level pupils and annual KS3 French and Spanish trips on rotation.

Each classroom is equipped with wireless internet access and a Smart TV. Pupils access resources via their own devices and teaching is supported by Microsoft OneNote. There is a central bank of resources, a staff area and a library space containing a range of books for general reading and for reading around A-Level topics.

You will be expected to carry out the professional duties of a teacher as circumstances may require and in accordance with the College's policies under the direction of the Headmaster. Teaching at LWC requires that members of the academic staff be willing to contribute fully to the life of the College.
