- Establish effective working relationships with professional colleagues and associate staff.
- Be involved in extra-curricular activities such as making a contribution to after-school clubs and visits.
- Maintain a working knowledge and understanding of teachers’ professional duties as set out in the current School Teachers’ Pay and Conditions document, and teachers’ legal liabilities and responsibilities relating to all current legislation, including ‘Keeping Children Safe in Education’, to implement the Children Act 2004 (and subsequent legislation), and the role of the education service in protecting children.
- Liaise effectively with parent/carers and with other agencies with responsibility for pupils’ education and welfare.
- Be aware of the role of the Governing Body of the School and support it in performing its duties.
- Be familiar with and implement the relevant requirements of the current SEN Code of Practice, DDA and Access to Work.
- Consider the needs of all pupils within lessons (and implement specialist advice) especially those who:
  - have Special Educational Needs;
  - are gifted and talented;
  - are not yet fluent in English.

Health and Safety.

This will include:

- Hold any H&S qualifications relevant to the teaching of your subject e.g. DATA Machinery Safety in Design Technology.
- Undergo Basic First Aid training and update courses.
- Be aware of the responsibility for personal Health, Safety and Welfare and that of others who may be affected by your actions or inactions.
- Co-operate with the employer on all issues to do with Health, Safety & Welfare.
- Have an understanding of visits’ procedures and the relevant actions to take when planning out of school activities.

Continuing Professional Development.

This will include:

- In conjunction with the line manager, take responsibility for personal professional development, keeping up-to-date with research and developments in teaching pedagogy and changes in the School Curriculum, which may lead to improvements in teaching and learning.
- Undertake any necessary professional development as identified in the School Improvement Plan taking full advantage of any relevant training and development available.
- Implement and develop pedagogic procedures introduced through school, local or government initiatives.
- Implement the use of new technologies that enhance teaching and learning.
- Participate in leadership, peer and self-monitoring and evaluation schemes, responding to, and acting upon, advice and guidance received.
- Carry out reflective practice exercises to move classroom practice, teaching and learning, forward.

- Use 'gained time' by revising teaching, learning and curriculum materials in readiness for new academic year; participate in collaborative planning sessions; provide additional pupil support or any activity directed by the Headteacher.
- Maintain a professional portfolio of evidence and learning log to support the Performance Management process - evaluating and improving own practice.
- Contribute to the professional development of colleagues, especially NQTs and ITTs.
- Contribute to departmental development by sharing professional learning, expertise and skills with others in the team, through departmental training activities such as coaching and mentoring.

Pastoral Responsibilities

This will include:

- To undertake the role of Permanent or Associate Form Tutor within a House or Year group.
- To maintain an accurate electronic register during registration periods and inform the Head of Year/House of any patterns of pupil absence.
- Be an initial point of contact for parents who have general concerns regarding their son or need to share non subject related details with the school.
- To plan for the effective use of form time or tutor periods.
- To monitor sanctions issued to members of the form and provide suitable intervention where appropriate e.g. Form tutor report, contacting parents or working with a Head of Year/House.
- To track rewards accrued by form members and celebrate positive contributions e.g. Postcards home, nominations for awards.
- To establish a form environment based on trust and respect so that pupils can confidently raise any issues that are causing them concern e.g. Bullying, Child Protection issues, family bereavement.

Other Specific Duties.

- Actively contribute to the achievement of the school strategic plan, particularly, but not exclusively, where related to Computing.
- Provide and support opportunities for students to develop personally and academically throughout their school career.
- Undertake duties in accordance with the published duty rota and on an adhoc basis as required.
- Other duties, consistent with the role of teacher, that may, from time to time, be required.

SECTION 2 - ADDITIONAL DUTIES FOR THIS POST

Additional tasks may be negotiated and agreed at the time of appointment and at annual review. These additional tasks are seen as an important part of the School's professional development programme:

This job description may occasionally be reviewed subject to amendment or modification at any time after consultation with the post holder. It is not a comprehensive statement of procedures and tasks but sets out the main expectations of the School in relation to the post holder's professional responsibilities and duties.
