Position Summary:	The Teacher of Economics reports to the Head of Economics, Mr Jon Kyte, and is expected to teach a full timetable of up to 48 periods (55 minutes / 10 day cycle). This outstanding department teaches from Y10 upwards and all Economics teachers are expected to deliver Economics from IGCSE up to A-level; the school currently offers the CIE course at both levels. Economics is an extremely popular subject in the school with over 130 students taking the IGCSE in Y10 and Y11 and around 65 taking the A-level in Y12 and Y13. Results are impressive: over 50% A* at A-level in 2019 and 2020, with several students winning awards from the exam board for their performance. Furthermore, the interest in the subject means a large number of students look to take Economics-related degrees at University level. Therefore a willingness to help with Oxbridge interview preparation and the department's extra-curricular activities is desirable. Experience of teaching Business Studies at GCSE or A level, although not essential would be desirable given the close relationship between the two departments. We are looking for an inspirational teacher who is keen to further enhance the teaching and learning in the school and the department.
