

Dear Candidate

Thank you for showing an initial interest in a teaching position at The British School of Lisbon, part of The Schools Trust.

The school is located in Central Lisbon, with the world-renowned Time Out Market just a minute's walk from the school building. If you are an outstanding teaching professional with a passion for travel, culture and culinary delights, there may be no better place to work!

If appointed, you will be part of a team of highly dedicated teaching professionals. You will help to shape the future direction of the school and lead a class of children to achieve their unlimited potential.

I hope the job description and school website will give you a clear flavour of what our school and the role will be like and our quest to continually strive for excellence and enjoyment both in and beyond the curriculum.

If you feel that BSL is for you, and you meet the criteria as stated in the job description, I very much look forward to reading your application.

With best wishes

Yours sincerely
