

THE URSULINE ACADEMY ILFORD

A Catholic Secondary School for Girls Aged 11-19 in the Diocese of Brentwood

MISSION STATEMENT:

The Ursuline Academy Ilford is a Catholic community of faith, love, kindness and service. Guided by Gospel values and the Holy Spirit, we strive to create an inclusive environment where everyone in our diverse community can reach their full potential in all their endeavours.

Our young women are inspired by the witness of St Angela and the vibrant school community, whose motto 'SERVIAM'- I will serve, empowers us all to play our full part in society.

VISITING MUSIC TEACHERS

June 2025

The Ursuline Academy Ilford is a four-form entry Catholic comprehensive school for girls aged 11-19, serving students who are supportive of and fully committed to the Catholic ethos of the school. Students who come here, join a community that is committed to success.

The school was founded by the Ursuline Order in 1903 and has been providing high quality education and pastoral care ever since. The school has a strong sense of community underpinned by Gospel values. Visitors regularly remark on the purposeful working atmosphere in which all are expected to do their best. We have an inclusive and community-focused ethos of which we are very proud. Our pupils are welcoming, engaging and articulate. They are ambitious for the school and for their own life beyond it. Consequently, students' behaviour for learning is exemplary.

Governors and staff at the school commit themselves to:

- Recognising the value and uniqueness of every student we teach
- Ensuring that the school is a safe place to be and one where the interests of justice are served
- Creating a community which is inclusive, one whose basis is mutual respect and equality
- Maintaining the long tradition of trust, cooperation and courtesy
- Generating good order and discipline based on sound relationships between staff, students, parents and carers
- Nurturing the religious and intellectual lives of our students through curricular and extra-curricular activities
- Inviting parents and carers to play an active role in their daughter's development, academically, spiritually and morally.

I am delighted you are interested in our school and hope this gives you some insight into who we are and what we stand for.

DEPARTMENT INFORMATION

At Ursuline Academy Ilford, we are committed to the continuous elevation of the profile and standard of music-making within our whole-school community. With a keen interest in music existing among both students and parents, and a supportive staff community that champions musical endeavours, we are proud of our pupils' musical achievements. Music teaching at Ursuline Academy spans both the Secondary Academy and Sixth Form, delivered by dedicated staff who work across Key Stages.

Our young women are inspired by the witness of St Angela and the vibrant school community, whose motto 'SERVIAM' - I will serve, empowers us all to play our full part in society. Inspired by our Catholic foundation, the role of music is prevalent in school life, with students regularly participating in choral singing and ensemble music-making opportunities. Our VMTs are key to the further development of ensembles and performance opportunities within the Academy and further afield.

The department houses a suite of specialist instrumental practice rooms, recording room, department office, storage and music room. VMTs provide lessons in a range of disciplines including voice, electric guitar, bass guitar, acoustic guitar, drum kit, keyboards, piano, violin, brass and woodwind. Mass takes place in our Chapel and Main Hall, which also provides a high-quality performance space with digital live PA for larger events.

The music curriculum at UAI is broad and balanced, offering a diverse scope of musical genres and styles, whilst incorporating students' cultural and individual musical interests.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Ursuline Academy Ilford is seeking enthusiastic and experienced visiting music teachers to deliver one-to-one lessons in Drum Kit and Voice from July 2025. Visiting Music Teachers (VMTs) are self-employed, and the contract for provision of lessons are made directly between parents/carers and the VMT. We are looking for musicians who will uphold UAI's values and are committed to fostering an inclusive environment where music is accessible for all.

VMTs are expected to deliver high quality, enjoyable lessons, inspiring and engaging pupils of all musical abilities across the Junior and Senior School.
