This will involve work in our BCS department and supporting in mainstream lessons around the school.

This role could also suit recent university graduates who are interested in gaining initial classroom experience as a Teaching Assistant, or those looking to start a career path in teaching.

General Duties and Responsibilities

Line Management:

Teaching Assistants may receive direction from any of the following people – Head of Department, Class Teachers, the SENCo's or senior leadership team.

Purpose of the job

- To work with and support individuals and small groups of students on activities as directed by teachers both within school or the local community.
- To work with and support individuals and small groups of students on activities as directed by teachers both within school or the local community.

Supporting the student

- To actively seek to develop an understanding of the specific needs and targets of the students.
- To establish a supportive relationship with the students.
- To encourage acceptance of the student within the context of integration.
- To develop methods of promoting and reinforcing student's confidence and self-esteem.
- To promote the independent learning of students as much as possible and diminish adult reliance
- Supervising students at break and lunch times on a rota basis.

Supporting Teachers and other professionals

- To assist the teacher in the development of a suitable programme of education and support for the students within other departments.
- To show initiative in preparation of appropriate lesson materials and resources.
- To contribute to annual reviews in writing and attend the meeting if requested.
- Assist mainstream teachers on understanding a pupil's needs and the appropriate differentiation.
- Assist teachers in the preparation and maintenance of classroom and corridor displays.

Supporting the Department

- To develop and foster a positive relationship between the student's home and school.
- To liaise, advise and consult with other members of the EAL team, mainstream teachers and outside professionals in support of the students.
- To attend relevant in-service training, EAL team meetings, departmental meetings and whole school staff meetings as required.
- To be aware of and follow EAL and whole school procedures / policies.

The above mentioned duties are neither exclusive nor exhaustive, duties and responsibilities of the post may change as requirements and circumstances change.

The post holder may be required to carry out such other duties as requested by management that are broadly within the level of the post.
