This post would suit a qualified teacher who wishes to work part-time (hours to be negotiated) or an aspiring teacher who has had previous tutoring experience and wishes to gain experience in an educational setting.

To provide effective 1 to 1 and small group tutoring to students with SEND at Lampton School.

To provide high quality adapted support to students with significant Special Educational Needs and Disabilities.

To tutor groups of students and or an individual, with a focus on adapting the curriculum to meet the needs of the students. This will include Maths and English tutoring.

To offer support and guidance on how best to revise for examinations.

To promote our extra-curricular offer and encourage students with SEND to attend.

To support within a classroom setting and offer additional guidance to students who may struggle to access the tasks set.

To highlight how best to support students with SEND with teaching staff by promoting our Student Support website and sharing Pupil Passports.

To be a positive reading role model and offer an intervention to develop comprehension skills at KS3 and KS4.

To observe, record and feedback information about student performance.

To run one extra-curricular activity for students with SEND per week - this can be particular interest of the candidate they wish to share. A healthy lifestyle offer would be desirable such as a sport or cooking activity.

To be committed to promoting the school's inclusive ethos.

Lampton School is a mixed, multi-ethnic, 11-18 expanding comprehensive school. We are a National Teaching school and a Senior Partner in the Challenge Partnership. Lampton School was judged as "Outstanding" in all categories by OFSTED in May 2008 and again in 2013. It was also featured in the Ofsted report '12 outstanding secondary schools – excelling against the odds'.

Lampton School actively encourages and supports the safeguarding and protection of all its pupils. This post is subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure.
