Context: Marner Primary School is a thriving, inclusive and diverse Nursery to Year 6, 3 form entry school in Bromley by Bow, East London that is developing and reshaping an exciting global curriculum which includes and celebrates all. We are a Rights Respecting school at the Gold Award level of accreditation. As a result, children have a keen understanding of their rights which fuels their education. We are looking for dynamic and creative teachers to not only educate our amazing children but to join a school-wide think tank on the cutting edge of research-based teaching and learning which enhances the bespoke way that we teach maths, oracy and English and promotes well-being for all.

Our vision is to support our children to become lifelong learners and thinkers who can think both inside and outside the 'box'. We encourage children to develop their confidence, promote positive teamwork and be the best that they can be through hard work. Our values of respect, happiness, growth, hope and motivation run through everything we do and are at the core of our teamwork as an equality and equity driven school.

At Marner, we highly value our staff and work to develop individuals and teams to move forward on their educational career journey. They are celebrated and valued for what they bring to the organisation and community. We are looking for a class teacher to join our community. Someone with integrity, humility and who promotes the common Marner moral purpose to ensure the very best for the children in their care.

We offer:

- An inclusive and diverse equality driven environment
- The chance to work with an experienced and expert staff
- Bespoke individualised CPD
- A school with an evidence-informed approach to teaching and learning
- A Rights Respecting School
- An opportunity to work in a positive and collaborative environment
