

Teacher of Design Technology MPS/UPS

The Design & Technology Department at Durham Johnston Comprehensive School is innovative and committed to delivering a high standard of teaching and learning. All departmental members are committed to developing the knowledge, skills and understanding of all pupils. We believe that studying Technology can be fundamental to young peoples' development and has a special role in securing their futures.

The Design & Technology Department here is well respected with a full complement of specialist teachers.

Person Specification

The following points give a list of qualities which are essential for appointment to this post (with the methods by which they will be assessed indicated in brackets).

1. An honours degree in an appropriate discipline. (application form)
2. An approved teaching qualification. (application form)
3. Recent successful teaching experience as a qualified teacher, or a successful teaching practice. (application form, reference)
4. Passion for your subject and the potential to become an excellent teacher at Durham Johnston Comprehensive School. (letter, reference, lesson, interviews)
5. The ability to communicate effectively with young people from a range of backgrounds. (reference, lesson, interviews)
6. The ability and willingness to collaborate effectively with colleagues. (reference, interviews)
7. Strong organisational skills and the ability to meet deadlines. (reference, interviews)
8. The ability and potential to teach Key Stage 4 and Key Stage 5. (reference, interviews, lesson)

Your Application

This should include the following:

- Durham County Council's Application Form for Teaching Posts
- A letter of application supporting your Application Form

Your application should reach us by 12.00pm on Monday 22nd March 2021.

Should you be interested and want to talk to someone about the school and the department, please feel free to contact the school and ask to speak with Gary Corkin (Subject Lead for Design & Technology) or Michael Wright (Assistant Headteacher).

Andrew O'Sullivan
Headteacher