

Would you like the opportunity to contribute to develop the Quality of Teaching and Learning across a school?

Are you knowledgeable and passionate about developing the quality of teaching and learning within a school? Are you a talented teacher and leader who has the ability to realise the teaching potential of others? Would you like to have a whole school impact?

If so, please contact hr@h3federation.org.uk to request further details or to arrange an informal conversation about the post or visit to the school.

We are looking for a two well-qualified and committed Lead Learning Practitioners for April or September 2024

Salary: L5-8 Inner London (£61,004 to £65,007)

This is an excellent time to join a confident, ambitious and much improved school with big ambitions to develop further. We will invest heavily in your professional development and we will keep our approach as simple as possible so that you can be at your very best professionally.

We are looking to appoint a colleague who can demonstrate:

- An incredibly strong moral purpose evidenced through unquestionable ambition for every single student.
- Substance and credibility as a teacher practitioner.
- High standards of teaching and learning across through continuously developing and enhancing its quality.
- Passion about developing the quality of education.
- Potential and desire to continue to grow professionally and transform the life chances of our students and their families.
- A desire to develop pupils' skills further by providing opportunities outside of the school day.

You will have the opportunity to teach across the 11-19 age range.

Haverstock is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The post will be subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure and online vetting check.

In line with KCSIE and safer recruitment practices, the school will conduct an online search for all shortlisted candidates. The online search is part of our safeguarding checks and will seek publicly available information on candidates' suitability to work with children. Shortlisted candidates will be provided with further guidance and will be asked to clarify their online presence.

Closing date: Monday 11th December at 9am

Interviews will take place at the school on Thursday 14th December
