Principal: Ms Lisa Boorman

At Plympton Academy we believe in inspiring a culture of success for all, including our staff. Your professional development is our responsibility. We have a culture of continuous professional development based on research and evidenced best practice, which is prioritised and supported through a tailored coaching programme.

We promise you .....

- Disruption free classrooms
- A world class pre-planned curriculum
- More development, less monitoring

Plympton Academy seeks to appoint a:

Head of Science

Required from September 2020

(MPS/UPS, TLR1b - possibility of retention and recruitment uplift for the right candidate)

permanent, full-time

(relocation fees will be considered for the right candidate)

Due to retirement, we seek to appoint a dynamic and strategic member of staff who will lead by example, develop, inspire and motivate their team and be committed to achieving high standards. This person will be looking to enable our young people to achieve outstanding results in all Sciences. This is an excellent opportunity for an outstanding teacher who is now looking for new challenges or promotion to head of department in a supportive and successful Academy.

We work in an effective collaborative with the very best local and national schools so that all teachers continue to thrive and engage in the latest teaching developments and practice. We prioritise excellent learning behaviours in our students and strong pastoral support so that learning is disruption free, teachers can teach and students can focus. As a result we are incredibly proud of our students and staff who love the challenge of learning, are equipped to achieve their own dreams and take pride in their success.

The candidate should be able to demonstrate excellent communication skills. They should be an outstanding classroom practitioner, have enthusiasm for their subject and be capable of teaching Science across our full age and ability range. Candidates should preferably have previous experience in a position of responsibility, or be able to demonstrate a proven record of experience and achievements.

The successful candidate will have an unwavering belief in the potential of every child.

For further information, please visit our website, or contact the Academy.
