Salford City College require a motivated, pro-active and suitably qualified Trainer/Assessor to deliver and assess on full apprenticeship programmes and work based learning courses for High level Project Management learners. You will be joining a team of people who are committed to supporting learners to achieve outstanding outcomes in a fast growing sector, delivering and assessing Frameworks/Standards up to Level 5. The successful candidate must have appropriate skills, knowledge and experience in Project Management as there will be a requirement for supporting Project Managers across a range of industries with the appropriate knowledge, skills and behaviours in the workplace. The successful candidate must have a proven track record in project management and in teaching learners to level 5 and with experience of successful use of ILT and digital learning so excellent IT skills are also key. In addition, you must have experience of recruiting new learners, engaging with employers and in supporting learners to achieve excellent results. Ideally the successful candidate will possess an assessor qualification (D32/3, A1, TAQA) and preferably IQA (D34/V1) qualification as well as a Category D qualification in project management.
