About the Catholic School's Office

The Catholic Schools Office (CSO) Diocese of Armidale serves 24 systemic schools; 19 primary, two central (K-10) and three secondary (7-12) across the New England and North West region of NSW. The Catholic Diocese of Armidale is the second-largest diocese geographically in NSW and within our boundaries are the major centres of Armidale, Tamworth, Gunnedah, Moree, Narrabri, Inverell and 13 other towns including; Uralla, Walcha, Guyra, Tenterfield, Glen Innes, Walgett, Manilla, Warialda, Barraba, Mungindi, Wee Waa, Boggabri and Quirindi. The CSO supports schools across the Diocese in building a Catholic Professional Learning Community for almost 1,000 employees in teaching and non-teaching roles, and 6,000 students.

Staff at the CSO are responsible for providing educational, administrative, information and communication technology, industrial, financial and employee services support to these schools. All employees of the CSO have a shared vision: to work together and with school teams to improve learning, teaching and wellbeing, and to do this work with a common purpose centred on a contemporary Catholic worldview of bringing all to the fullness of life.

Position Purpose

The purpose of the ICT Service Delivery Officer is to deliver outstanding ICT customer service and support for the schools and offices of the Catholic Diocese of Armidale in line with industry best practice. The ICT Service Delivery Officer will be the first point of contact for the ICT Service Desk, ensuring that timely and professional ICT support is available for CSO ICT services.

The ICT Service Delivery Officer will be the one of the primary CSO ICT service management contacts, deal with non-specialist support tasks, assign incoming service requests to the ICT Service Delivery Coordinator or appropriate ICT specialists as required, and communicate clearly and effectively with staff seeking ICT services throughout the full support or service request process.

A function of the ICT Service Delivery Officer will be to deal with external ICT vendors and service providers for the repair and maintenance of existing equipment, ensuring appropriate service levels are maintained and ensuring maximum value for the CSO and schools.

The ICT Service Delivery Officer will work closely with the ICT Service Delivery Coordinator to undertake other tasks as directed to ensure the efficient operation of the CSO ICT Services.

The position will be based at either the CSO Office, located at 2/131 Barney Street, Armidale, NSW or CSO Tamworth Hub, located at 2/137 Marius Street, Tamworth, NSW.

Commencement

The commencement date for this position will be negotiated with the successful applicant.
