

Home Learning Supervisor

Home Learning Supervisors

Start date	September 2023
Contract	Permanent
Salary	£15 - £20 per hour based on experience
Hours	1 hour 45 mins a week on Mondays 2.45 – 4.30pm, term time only (39 weeks per year)

Weydon School is looking for four home learning Supervisors on a Monday only from 2.45-4.30pm during term time. The role would suit someone that is used to working with teenagers or ex teachers but if you have no experience in this field then training would be given. The students will have been given home learning from their subject teachers and using the resources in our learning resources library which include computers and books you will facilitate them to complete this. Some students will require more support but you will be made aware of this. The idea is to insist on a purposeful and supportive learning environment to ensure that the students are able to complete their home learning to the best of their ability.

The successful applicants will have patience, empathy, excellent communication skills, ideally recent experience of working with children age 11-16, good organisational skills plus GCSE equivalent in English and Maths.

Weydon School is a large, ambitious and outstanding school in an unspoilt area of Surrey within easy reach of London. The Times has recently rated Weydon School 1st across the UK for 11-16 schools, and achievements in all subject areas are exceptional. Students are respectful and responsive, and are proud to uphold the strong values of the school.

Salary & Hours

This is a part-time role working 2.45 – 4.30pm every Monday, term time only basis (39 weeks per year). £15 - £20 per hour.
