Bangabandhu school is a rights respecting, happy, inclusive, and highly successful primary school in the heart of Bethnal Green in East London with a 15-place local authority resource provision for children with complex needs.

We are looking to appoint an inspiring and enthusiastic SENDCo who will be responsible for maximising the progress of children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities across our school. We already have a Complex Needs Provision Leader who leads and manages our 15-place provision and the SENDCo will work with this Leader as well as managing the very high level of need within our mainstream school.

The role will be non-class based but will include the daily teaching of English to a group of SEND children.

We have wonderful children and staff at Bangabandhu so come along and see our school for yourself. If you would like to visit, please contact Paul Hankin, our Office Manager and we will arrange a visit with our Executive Headteacher or Head of School.
