St Paul's Way Trust School is a highly successful 'Through School' and 'National Teaching School' with a record of accomplishment and innovation. Drawing extensively on academic research the school provides a transformational educational experience, where all of our students matter, where expectations of all the members within our community are high and where personal achievement and fulfilment are valued and sought after.

The Trustees and Governors are seeking to appoint an ambitious, innovative and outstanding Group Learning Resources and Libraries Manager to develop, oversee and promote an exceptional library service to our pupils and staff across the Primary and Secondary schools. Your role would cover key school priorities which include:

- Stock selection and management
- Reading development and engagement
- Promotion of Independent Learning/Information Skills
- Line management responsibilities.

The successful candidate will be able to demonstrate exceptional leadership and management skills to achieve the following:

- Continue to raise standards and improve educational opportunities for our students
- Collaborating with the Director of Literacy to develop the school's Reading for Pleasure programme

- Be able to lead our Libraries in an imaginative and motivational way
- Motivate, inspire and support all of our staff, and work closely with governors, Headteacher, parents and the local community

The culture at SPW aims to support new and experienced middle leaders to thrive and continuously develop within their leadership. The candidate will either be an experienced Librarian or looking to develop his/her Librarian competencies. If you aspire to provide a transformational education for all students whilst receiving the very best support to develop your career, then we would very much like to hear from you.

then St Paul's Way Trust School, the 'University School in the Heart of East London' welcomes your application.
