

The Abbey

The independent school for girls aged 3-18.

TEACHING ASSISTANT –PART TIME (1 YEAR CONTRACT)

The Abbey Junior School is part of the highly regarded Abbey School where happy, well-behaved and highly motivated girls work and play in a very well resourced, supportive and stimulating environment. The Teaching Assistants are important and valued members of the staff team who make a strong contribution to the life of the Abbey Junior School both in and out of the classroom.

This post is likely to suit an individual with previous experience in a school environment, as either a Teaching Assistant, a Higher Level Teaching Assistant or Teacher wishing to work as a TA, who is comfortable working in Key Stage 2, although applicants from other suitable candidates will be considered. Secure knowledge and strong skills in Maths and English are essential.

This document does not form part of an employee's Terms and Conditions of Employment and it may be amended from time to time.

Teaching Assistants answer to the Head of The Abbey School through the Head of the Abbey Junior School and take detailed direction from the Assistant Heads.

The Teaching Assistant will be expected:

- to support the activities of all curriculum areas in the classroom.
- to work with individuals and groups to support their learning in Maths and English.
- to provide for the general welfare and pastoral care of children.
- to be self-motivated and to liaise with members of staff throughout the school, working effectively as a member of the team
- to prepare and clear away materials and assist with displays and general classroom organisation
- to attend educational visits supporting the girls' learning and will have the opportunity to attend residential visits.

General duties will include:

- undertaking supervisory duties throughout the day
- attending all relevant staff meetings, parents' meetings, open days, staff planning or INSET days, (which may fall outside core hours)
- keeping up to date with the relevant policies of the school and remaining sufficiently aware of the personal needs of individual pupils to act confidently and consistently alongside staff colleagues
- covering for absent colleagues
- being involved in extra-curricular activities
