Position
Summary

Shrewsbury International School Bangkok City Campus is opening a new Chinese-British pathway option for our students and is looking for passionate teachers to join the founding team of this pathway.

Class Teachers work within a supportive year group team of two teachers coordinated by the HQP Bilingual Pathway Chinese Principal. Each team works closely and plans together. All classes have one or two full time Teaching Assistant(s).

Class Teachers are responsible for the class and the teaching of the UK Early Years Foundation Stage Curriculum through an immersive pedagogy (Nursery / EY teachers) and dual-language immersion in Chinese and English, effectively delivering the Chinese and English bilingual curriculum based on the English National Curriculum covering Chinese, English, Mathematics, Science, Humanities, Art and Digital Literacy, Topic themes, Learning for Life (Key Stage 1/Key Stage 2). Linked learning, an abundance of creativity and an added international dimension enrich the curriculum.

A range of subject specialist lessons are taught which further enhance the provision (Thai, PE, Swimming, Music, Digital Literacy, Library time).

A vibrant after school activity programme, 'You Time!' is contributed to by all Class Teachers. The Junior School is well resourced, thriving and successful with a range of ICT resources available to aid learning. Our students are diligent, motivated and enthusiastic. We benefit from close communication and positive relationships with our parent body.
